Nancy Hanks to Try To-day.

INDEPENDENCE, Iowa, Aug. 30.—Among the many good things billed for Rush Park this week is the effort of Nancy Hanks to lower her record of 2.07¾ on Wednesday; the next day Martha Wilkes (2.09¼) will start to lower the world's trotting record. An effort is being made to arrange a match race between Nancy Hanks and Martha Wilkes for some day later.

Next Wednesday's Prize Fight.

W. E. Harding the well-known Canadian prize fighting enthusiast, now of New York, has seen all the big fights in England and America the last 20 years and knows the boxers like a book. He writes of the coming big fight as follows: "Everybody is trying to solve the problem as to whether Jem Corbett will defeat John L. Sullivan or the latter conquer Corbett. Sullivan is a gladiator who has been put through the pugilistic crucibles and stood the test. He has fought twice for the championship of the world—with Paddy Ryan and Jake Kilrain, and was victorious. On the other hand Corbett has only engaged in one contest to speak about; that was with Peter Jackson, which, while he did not win, he did not meet with defeat. He is taller, has longer reach than the champion, but the latter has weight and experience and can hit his hard enough for all practical purposes. Corbett is a clever two-handed boxer and as light as a mountain goat on his feet, but he will have to possess wonderful stamina, indomitable pluck and have to land tremendous blows to defeat such a prize ring gladiator as Sullivan. Whether he can fill the bill a week from to-day will decide.

An English Four to Visit America.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—The rowing people of London are greatly exercised over the single scull championship. George Bubear, the ex-champion, forfeited his title to William G. East while he was in Australia.

Now Bubear has returned and wants to row East. Bubear won the open scull race at the national regatta this week, and this event is generally regarded as the championship.

Bubear's crew also won the four-oared race in record time, and it is more than probable that the crew will be seen in Chicago at the big regatta. It is a very strong force, undoubtedly the best England has had for some years. The ensemble is: Bubear, 168 pounds; Jack Corcoran, 173 pounds; William Haines, 180 pounds, and Joe Gibson, 165 pounds. It is very doubtful if any amateur crew will go to Chicago.

The Toronto Football Club,

At the general meeting of the Toronto Football Club (Rugby), which will be held next Monday at Keachie's, the committee appointed to confer with the Toronto Lacrosse Association will present their report on the proposed affiliation of the Toronto Football Club and the adoption of Rugby football by the Association. The committee will point out some of the benefits to be derived by the club and Rugby football generally should such a step be decided upon. In the first place one of the greatest difficulties the Toronto Football Club have had to contend with has been the uncertainty from season to season of procuring suitable grounds for both practicing and playing matches upon. This has been equally felt by both players and their friends, for whom proper accommodation has never been given. In affiliating with the Association all members will have the use of the finest grounds in Canada, both for practices and matches, as well as a clubhouse, at which lockers, shower baths, etc., can be procured.

For the latter part of this season the Lacrosse Association will admit members and their friends to full admission to all privileges for the sum of $2. The club will, as in the past, be known as the Toronto Football Club (Rugby), electing its own officers and looking after the general club business with the exception only of finance, which under a satisfactory agreement or arrangement will be attended to by the association. The committee announce that in their opinion the proposed affiliation will undoubtedly prove to be a great source of playing strength to the club, as already the committee have received promises of many good likely players from the lacrosse, cricket and other clubs in the association. A rousing meeting is expected next Monday at Keachie's.

East Toronto Cricket Notes.

Brampton beat Riverdale yesterday on the baseball grounds by 16 runs on first innings—Brampton 41, Riverdale 25; second innings, Brampton 78, Riverdale 46 runs for 8 wickets. The chief scorers were: For Brampton, Loosemore 21, Maddock 15; for Riverdale, Webster 30, and Monteith 3.

The druggists will play against East Toronto cricketers this afternoon on the grounds of the latter. Each team has a game to its credit and this is to decide the supremacy. East Toronto will play the same team as before in its game with the druggists this afternoon. The druggists are all members of the East Toronto Cricket Club.

The all-day game between Brampton and East Toronto, which was to have been played here to-morrow, has been declared off for the present.

STAPLES.

IF there was a possibility of a "repeat order" in the line of damaged linens we'd be after them. No such good luck for you this time. A hint sold them at sight. Wide-awake buyers needing linen knew when a good thing fell in the way, and good sense bought, it not for immediate use, for future need.

The range is still well assorted, but selling evenly and going fast, gratifying to us and good values to shoppers. We're pleased, and you couldn't help but be, too, to buy a line of linen in table cloths, tray cloths, napkins, toweling, etc., etc. Staple articles, just a little rust, not to hurt the texture, at 50 per cent. below regular prices is a stroke of economy we recommend.

Something new and natty—a choice consignment of washstand and bureau covers and sideboard scarfs all to match. Toilet mats in plain and colored borders—the prices are as tempting as the goods.

Have you bought your flannels? Do you know it's getting about time to? We can sell you anything you ask for. Try this store for warm wearables.
