THE ROYAL CITY'S TWO DAY RACING MEET.

Toronto Gets a Well-Bred Trotter From the South. Notes From the Woodbine Meeting of the City Racehorses Called Monday-Weezy, Curling and Leobeaning-Gaudaur and Stambury.

Mr. Geoff Hall of Guelph is in town. He says the Royal City will probably give two days' racing immediately following the Hamilton meeting and will hang up prizes amounting to $5000.

News comes to hand of a celebrated trotter which has just been brought into the city from Kentucky. He is a bay gelding and said to be a "cracker."

Building operations are progressing favorably at the Woodbine these cold March days and a small army of men are working away at the new members' stand and the boxes at the southwest corner of the track.

Mr. Duggan intends putting Quarrel in training again as soon as he has woned her fifty for her fall engagements. The thoroughbred mare is only now in her eighth year. Noy was her only foal but she foaled a bay filly by The Chosen last week.

Quarrel has shown she can go fast. When at Hawthorne Park in October last she won the Woodbine stake with some coming up with a "rest all." The start went up. What's that? Why, that darned old Canadian brood mare.

Imp. Queen Bess, by the English Derby winner, Sir Barry-Geordie, foaled a chestnut filly by Point two days ago. Some of the English horses belonging to the Wallington Stables which are not going to the "Gat" and which are in Maurice Blaylock's hands, are showing wonderful improvement and may make things lively at the coming May meeting.

Leolinus, who recently died in Australia, was foaled in 1871 by Caterer-Tamania, in Melbourne. He was imported to New Zealand by Mr. G. C. Stoad. He won the Chester Cup, Prince of Wales Stakes at Ascot, fourth in Apolony's Leg, at the Antipodes Leolinus got some useful horses.

The odds on the Valley Farm's Queen's Plate candidate, Heather Bloom, have decreased from 10-1 to 5-1. That looks as if she were becoming the favorite.

The London Free Press says that Toronto has lost its interest in baseball apparently, as all efforts to raise the capital necessary to float an International League team have failed. Now, no effort has been made here for many a month and certainly not in the past year to re-introduce professional baseball into Toronto.

Besides the Toronto-Hamilton League, which will apparently equate, there promises to be one or two city leagues. One is a junior league and the other a local. Local enthusiasts have put their heads together and will meet on Monday next to talk over the best course to take the coming season.

Thompson of the Nationals dropped into the World office yesterday and stated that he wanted to see the old state of affairs and a good football league. He was not favorably impressed Toronto-Hamilton affair. Every club in the city, senior and junior, is invited to send one or two delegates to yesterday's meeting to decide on how many amateur leagues the city will stand. Capt. Nelson has very kindly placed the Rossin House at the baseballists' disposal.

Acain Harry Bethune, the champion 100 yards runner of America, is heard from. He is in New York and offers to run any race in the world 100 yards for $1000 to $2500 a side, the race to take place six weeks from signing articles.

Champion Stambury is in America. George Babear, the English champion, talks of coming. And with our own man probable there is bound to be a plethora of sculling events this season. The vexed American championship question will certainly be settled and the Australian will give ambitious scullers on this continent the chance to recapture the aquatic championship peddled to the Antipodes many years ago by Hanlan.

GAUDAUR AFTER STAMBURY. He'll Challenge the Australian for the World's Championship. Jake Gaudaur yesterday wired from Orillia that he would like to have a scull race in a few days to James Stambury, who has just arrived from Australia and is now in San Francisco.

The challenge will be for $2500 a side and the sculling championship of the world now held by the Antipodes.

It is just possible, however, that the two will come together in a very early date. The big single scull regatta in Texas takes place last week in April. Gaudaur has already entered and it is then probable that Stambury will also be himself South for the event. It is in his hands whether the challenge will be accepted by Peterson and McLean, the Western scullers.

Gaudaur will visit the city on Monday to make the second deposit for his race with Hanlan. He will also like to measure blades with the distinguished visitor and may send word to Frisco to that effect if he concludes that his engagements with Ross and Gaudaur will not in any way be interfered with.

Stambury will likely stay in Frisco until he makes arrangements for his final race.

Montan Will Defeat Ross For It. New York, March 17.—Richard K. Fox yesterday after weeks passed in studying designs furnished by numerous scull manufacturers for the Richard K. Fox championship challenge rowing cup, selected a design furnished by the Gorham Company. The aquatic championship emblem will put all similar trophies in the shade, and when finished will be the most unique, beautiful and costly rowing trophy ever offered for competition. It will cost $2500, while the firm will put an extra $1000 of work in the emblem.

The Canadian Kennel Club. A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Canadian Kennel Club will be held in Toronto on Monday.

A bill has been favorably reported in the Connecticut Legislature signed by all pool selling in that state, and especially on the race at Sheltonville and elsewhere. Incidentally it would stop pool selling at Charter Oak Park during the Grand Circuit meeting and at the various smaller turf meetings throughout the state during the season.

The final football match for the Scottish challenge cup was set for Feb. 25, but the referee declared the ground unfit for a cup match on account of frost, but the contesting teams, Glasgow Celtic and Queen's Park, played a friendly game which the Celtic won by a goal to a twenty-five thousand crowd. The game was in good trim; it will be good, as Saturday's was, so don't miss the admission 25c.

Prof. Joe Pop's Sparring Academy, No. 7 St. Nicholas, in view of the Russell House, Youngsville, Kentucky, has a rattling good go between two local pugilists in good trim; it will be good, as Saturday's was, so don't miss the admission 25c.

VAIRISITY'S ANNUAL SCRAP. A Lively Time at Richmond Hall Last Evening Over the Elections-Fighting in Progress Until Dawn.

Varsity's annual elections were held last night in Richmond Hall. All week there has been a certain amount of uneasiness around the college as to whether there would be a spirited election this year, but the most ardent lover of the "scraps" must have been more than satisfied last night. Both parties had made great preparations for the event, which now, since the failure of the annual conversation, may be truly termed the college event of the year.

The struggle centered in the election for first vice-president and last night fight was a candidate, Mr. S. J. MacLean and Mr. G. H. Levy. One other office was contested, viz: curator, by Mr. W. E. MacPherson and Mr. C. C. Stewart. The first-named of each of the above gentlemen were the nominees of the Old Union party and the others were of the "scraps" party.

The election has been very bitter and personal for the first time in the history of the college. The "scraps" party had imported the famous "Explosion" man, Myers, who gave exhibition of heavy weight lifting at the last year's election. He expressed his regret that he could not resist the temptation to take part in the "scraps" and his party had provided for it with special prizes.

The introduction of decidedly new styles in interior decoration, which were foreshadowed in the late work of last season, is universally seen in the designs for the designs for the coming season. MONEY MAKES MONEY. The Many Ways to Invest It. Speaking of how money is made and lost, the manager of one of our greatest financial institutions remarked in the course of a conversation the other day that investing money nowadays there was a deal to much of what, when he was a boy, they called "follow the leader." "Take for instance," he said, "the Toronto real estate market. It is made money, immediately every one bought it on margin—they realized all the money they could get and bought ten times the amount of property they could afford to carry. The collapse of real estate did not surprise me. It had to come, and if it would only teach men sense it would be a cheap lesson. Now no one will have anything to do with it.
