1920 WORLD SERIES. Cleveland (A. L.) 1 1 3 4 300 Brooklyn (N. L.) 1 1 4 3 300 Third game at Brooklyn to-day, 1 o'clock (London time).

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—In a pitching duel between the leading hurlers of the National and American leagues, Burleigh A. Grimes, Brooklyn's spitball ace, to-day shut out Cleveland, 3 to 0, in the second game of the world's series at Ebbets' Field. His ability to hold the Indians in check when hits would have meant runs marked his superiority over James C. Bagby, who Manager Speaker selected to add a second game to the Cleveland string. The victory, which placed the Dodgers alongside Tris Speaker's Indians, was due almost entirely to the excellent pitching of Grimes, who had the heavy hitting representatives of the junior league baffled throughout the game, so far as consecutive bunting was concerned. With the exception of the eighth inning, when Grimes temporarily lost sight of the home plate, Cleveland never appeared in the light of a serious contender.

The inability of the Indians to connect with Grimes' slants, when hits would have meant runs, is proved by the fact that the Cleveland clan got 14 runners on the bases of whom 16 were stranded and four retired by subsequent plays. The Indians were not without repeated opportunities to score. But in every emergency the Brooklyn mobster bag finger met the emergency with a

Summary:
Two-base hits—Wheat, Gardner, Griffith, Speaker.
Stolen base—J. Johnston.
Double play—Gardner to O'Neill to W. Johnston to O'Neill.
Left on bases—Cleveland, 4; Brooklyn, 4.
Hits—Off Grimes, 4; off Bagby, 1.
Hits—Off Bagby, 7 in 6 innings; off Uhle, none in 2 innings.
Struck out—By Grimes, 2; by Uhle, 3.
Losing pitcher—Bagby.
Time of game—1:55.
Umpires—Connolly (A.L.) behind plate; O'Day (N.L.) at first; Dinneen (A.L.) at second; Klem (N.L.) at third.

Bagby in the seventh session, proved more of a puzzle to the home collection of sharp-breaking slants or slow breaks, which cut the corners of the plate or shot in close to the body of the batter, with the result that the seven hits of the invaders were so scattered as to be useless in run-producing.
Bagby was not as effective in the box for Speaker's team as Coveskie in the opening game, or as his opponent, Grimes, although he delivered less pitches than did the winning hurler. The Dodgers reached his offerings effectively when runners were on bases as compared to the Indians for the 10 Brooklyn batters to reach first, three scored, three were retired and the remaining four left. The pitching analysis shows that the winners scored three runs on seven hits scattered through six innings, while Cleveland, with an equal number of swats, was unable to send a run across the plate in nine innings. FLASH OF DEFENSIVE SKILL.
A flash of the defensive skill of the Indians was shown in the third session with Brooklyn at bat. Bagby served up a slow float to Grimes, who promptly speared it into center for a single. Olsen followed with a punt which Bagby threw to second. Wamby, in his efforts to hold the ball, stooped into the bag and Grimes, flashing into the sack, turned a complete somersault over the prostrate infielder. Griffith's double to second, Grimes and put Olsen on third. Bagby purposely passed Zack Wheat and relied on the play of Myers to shut off the rally. The entire Cleveland team was on its toes and when Myers slashed a sizzling grounder to Gardner, the Indians' third baseman shot it back to O'Neill, forcing out Olsen. O'Neill endeavored to turn the play into a second out at first, but his throw hit Myers square in the back as the latter raced for the initial sack. Johnson was on the job, however, and rushed up the base line, where he picked up the ball and hoisted it back to O'Neill in time to catch Griffith trying to score. O'Neill added the play by completely blocking the throw to the plate for which he was roundly booed by the fans. The play was entirely legitimate, however, and Umpire Connolly, who was officiating behind the plate, paid no attention to the protests of the home readers.
Brooklyn's other runs were scored without any attendant features.
SMALLER CROWD.
The official figures announced by the National Commission showed that in both attendance and receipts the figures fell below those of Tuesday.
The paid attendance was $2,559, and the receipts $16,164. This makes total receipts for the two days $158,213.
The division of this money for the two days follows:
National Commission.....$15,521.30
Balance to players' pool.....$2,815.02
Remainder to clubs.....$5,876.65
The players' share in the receipts of the first five games and their pool is divided 75 per cent. to the players of the teams participating in the world's series and 25 per cent. to the players of the teams finishing second and third in the National and American leagues.
ROBBIE EXPECTED THIS.
"The boys did just what I expected they would do after what they have been showing me all season," said Manager Robinson of the Brooklyn team. "It has been their habit all year to come back strong after defeat and naturally I could see no reason why they would not do the same thing in the world's series."
Some of the fans thought after the first game that the Brooklyn team would be the easy for the Indians all through the series, but I felt differently about it. Now that we have come back and evened the series our confidence in ultimate victory is even greater than

CINCINNATI TOWN FATHERS RESOLVE REDS HAD NO SERIES "FIXED"

CINCINNATI, Oct. 3.—Confidence in the Cincinnati baseball team which won the 1919 world's championship, was expressed by Cincinnati City Council yesterday in a resolution unanimously adopted. The resolution declares the Reds proved to be of championship no professional coach for all, according to the caliber despite efforts made to "throw" the games to them in last year's series. The resolutions before the Chicago grand jury did not involve the Reds, the resolution recites, and the investigation in the manner relied upon the integrity of the champions.

WOMEN FOOTBALL COACHES APPLY FOR JOBS IN PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3.—High schools in this city are facing the alternative of women football coaches, or no professional coaching at all, according to William S. Strecher, director of public school physical education. At the last examination for physical instructors in the high schools no men applied. There were 10 women applicants.

GUARD AGAINST CHILLS

Simple Precaution Against Dangers of Cold and Damp.
Cultivate the habit of taking a cup of hot Oxo—a cube to a cup, before going out in the cold or damp. Such weather is a tax upon the system, and the strengthening and warming powers of the concentrated beef-goodness fortify you against the evils consequent upon exposure.
If the uses of Oxo are new to you, try a tin of four cubes. Oxo greatly improves gravies, stews, or soups, and is a delightful, sustaining and appetizing beverage. It is excellent for children.
Regular users of Oxo prefer the larger tins of 10 and 50 cubes, using them in many different ways in place of meat.

TRICK PLAYS AND SUBS GALORE FOR WESTERN U.

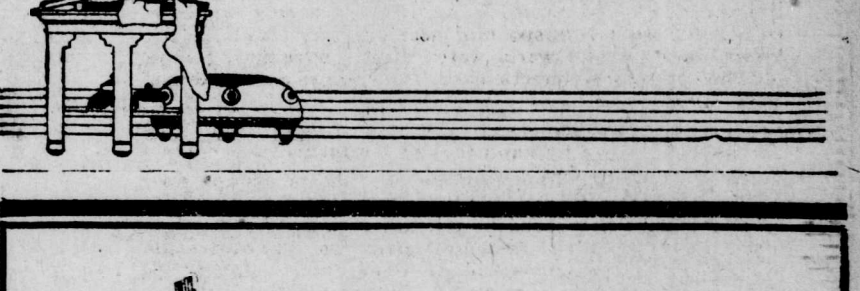

University Squad Fast Developing Readiness to Give Assumption College Real Stiff Argument Here on Saturday

For one solid hour Honorary Coach Mel Brock drove the Western U. football team yesterday afternoon and sent them around the park twice before he chased them to the showers. It was a signal drill, but the men are now finding themselves and the plays went along better than they did at the end of last season. With one of two exceptions the condition of the team is good and they should go the distance at top speed. Several new trick plays were tried out to-day and worked quite smoothly. The team will be provided with subs in case of accidents, in fact many of the places being yet a toss up between two or more men. Traynor's punting is if anything better than ever before and if the line gives him any sort of protection he will cause some nightmare in the hearts of the opposing halves. The team had a short drill on the American game last night and will have another to-night. It will be impossible for the team to learn the Yankee game properly, but they are trying out a few formations which they will use during the second half. Reports from Sandwich say that the Assumption College boys expect to come out on top in both halves of Saturday's game here, but the Western outfit cannot see it that way. In any case it will be a game worth witnessing and will be the first opportunity for Londoners to see the two intercollegiate games completed.

BIG INDUSTRIAL PLAN FOR QUEBEC

British Business Men Plan Railroad and Mills
Big Steel Mills at Quebec and Chicoutimi Also

MONTREAL, Oct. 3.—Canadian Press Dispatch—The Herald to-day prints a Quebec dispatch which announces that a vast project for industrial expansion in the Province of Quebec will soon be publicly announced. The two principal figures in the enterprise are Lord Burnham, proprietor of The London Daily Telegraph, and Lord Desborough, who came to Canada to attend the congress of the Chambers of Commerce in Toronto.

The project comprises the construction of a railway from Hudson Bay to enter Quebec by the Montmorency Valley, the establishment of pulp and paper mills at Saguenay, and at all places where there are important water powers along the line of this new railway, and the creation of great steel works at Chicoutimi and at Quebec, which will become great steel manufacturing centers.

1,200 MINERS IN B. C. ARE OUT ON STRIKE

Will Cause Almost Complete Tie-Up of Crow's Nest Pass Company's Operations
PERNIE, B. C., Oct. 3.—(Canadian Press Dispatch)—The miners at Michel are reported practically idle to-day as the result of a strike vote of the miners against the company. The Crow's Nest miners also decided to walk out. This will cause an almost complete tie-up of the mines operated by the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company.

It is understood the cause of the suspension of work is the controversy over the United Mine Workers of America check-off system.
