

Stops Car For Kiss.
 Wiasted, Conn., Sept. 30.—A trolley car in charge of Conductor James Furey, stopped in Windsor Locks yesterday to take a man on board. After the car had started again the conductor saw a woman waving her hand and running toward the car. Supposing she desired passage, the conductor stopped the car. The man who had just seated himself jumped from his seat and ran back to meet the woman. As soon as the couple met the man put one arm around the woman's neck and kissed her three times. Then the woman kissed him. The man took his arm from around the woman's neck, looked at her for an instant, kissed her again, then turned and started back for the car.

 Conductor Furey said this was the first case he knew of a woman stopping a trolley car to get a kiss.

Farmer Killed By Bull.
 Smith's Falls, Sept. 19.—Peter Shields, one of the wealthiest farmers of this section, was killed by a bull this morning. He sold the animal to a drover, who left Mr. Shields in the field. A few minutes later a neighbor working in an adjoining field saw the bull attack Mr. Shields. With the aid of a dog he succeeded in driving it off, but he was too late to save Mr. Shields' life. He had been trampled to death. Mr. Shields was 64 years old.

YIELD OF $60 AN ACRE.
 York County Farmer Makes Money in Alsike Crop.

In this season of scarce crops it is refreshing to get news of a yield per acre of $60.
 This was accomplished by Robert Agar of Victoria Square, who took over $1,000 from less than 20 acres of alsike.
 Mr. Agar has just threshed 131 bushels and 35 lbs. of alsike clover, being a yield of 7 1/2 bushels per acre.
 C. H. Stiver of Unionville purchased the seed at $8 per bushel just as it came from the machine, which netted Mr. Agar $1034.79, or about $60 to the acre.
 L. G. Stoutenburgh of Victoria Square threshed the seed in two and a half days.

FROM GIRLHOOD TO WOMANHOOD

Mothers Should Watch the Development of Their Daughters—
 Interesting Experiences of Misses Borman and Mills.

Every mother possesses information which is of vital interest to her young daughter.
 Too often this is never imparted or is withheld until serious harm has resulted to the growing girl through her ignorance of nature's mysterious and wonderful laws and penalties.
 Girls' over-sensitiveness and modesty often puzzle their mothers and baffle physicians, as they so often withhold their confidence from their mothers and conceal the symptoms which ought to be told to their physician at this critical period.
 When a girl's thoughts become sluggish, with headache, dizziness or a disposition to sleep, pains in the back or lower limbs, eyes dim, desire for solitude; when she is a mystery to herself and friends, her mother should come to her aid, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will at this time prepare the system for the coming change, and start this trying period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.
 Hundreds of letters from young girls and from mothers, expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for them, have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., at Lynn, Mass.
 Miss Mills has written the two following letters to Mrs. Pinkham, which will be read with interest:
 Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (First letter.)
 "I am but fifteen years of age, am depressed, have dizzy spells, chills, headache and backache, and as I have heard that you can give helpful advice in my condition, I am writing you."
 Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (Second letter.)
 "It is with the feeling of utmost gratitude that I write to you to tell you what your valuable medicine has done for me. When I wrote you in regard to my condition I had consulted several doctors, but they failed to understand my case and I did not receive any benefit from their treatment. I followed your advice and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now healthy and well, and all the distressing symptoms which I had at that time have disappeared."
 Miss Matilda Borman writes Mrs. Pinkham as follows:
 Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
 "Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my periods were irregular and painful, and I always had such dreadful headaches.
 "But since taking the Compound my headaches have entirely left me, my periods are regular and I am getting strong and well. I am telling all my girl friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."
 If you know of any young girl who is sick and needs motherly advice, ask her to address Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and tell her every detail of her symptoms, and to keep nothing back. She will receive advice absolutely free, from a source that has no rival in the experience of women's ills, and it will, if followed, put her on the right road to a strong, healthy and happy womanhood.
 Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for the greatest number of cures of female ills of any medicine that the world has ever known. Why don't you try it?

Penmanship

Anybody who has the "determination" can become a good penman if he or she will intelligently follow our instructions and practice an hour or so a day for a few months.
 Penmanship is of far greater importance than most young people realize.
 We know from intimate acquaintance with business men that there isn't anything that creates a more favorable impression on an employer than the neatness and legibility of an applicant's handwriting.

Ten Commandments for the Home

- 1 Make your household one harmonious whole, no matter how small the scale.
- 2 Use only what you can comfortably afford in good quality and ample quantity.
- 3 Let your home appear bright and sunny. It is not easy to be unpleasant in a cheerful room.
- 4 Treat your servants wisely and kindly and it will be impossible for them to impose or oppose.
- 5 Have time for everything, and be never in a hurry.
- 6 A certain formality is necessary to save everyday life from triviality, and freedom from looseness.
- 7 Do not forget that "society" is the death of home life, hospitality its flower.
- 8 Know how to talk and how to listen how to entertain and how to amuse.
- 9 Have many interests and no studies.
- 10 Do not forget—your home should not only be a well conducted dormitory and boarding-place, but truly a home, the centre of focus of all interest, pleasure, and happiness for everybody connected with it.—Boston Cooking School Magazine.

Kind to Illiterates.

A Georgia Congressman gleefully tells of an experience during his last visit to New York.
 The representative had put up an American-plan hotel. When, upon sitting down at dinner the first evening of his stay, the waiter obsequiously handed him a bill-of-fare, the Congressman tossed it aside, slipping the waiter a dollar bill, and said: "Bring me a good dinner."
 The dinner proving satisfactory, the Southern member pursued this plan during his entire stay in New York. As the last tip was given, he mentioned that he was about to return to Washington.
 Whereupon, the waiter, with an expression of great earnestness, said: "Well, sir, when you or any of your friends that can't read come to New York just ask for Dick."

Allegator Might Forget.

A colored preacher took some candidates for immersion down to a river in Louisiana. Seeing some alligators in the stream, one of them objected.
 "Why, brother," urged the pastor, "can't you trust the Lord? He took care of Jonah, didn't he?"
 "Y-a-a-s," admitted the darky, "but a whale's different. A whale's got a memory but of one o' dem 'gators' wus swaller dis nigger he'd jes' go to sleep dar in de sun 'an' fergit all 'bout' me."

Mr. Jolly, of Mandammin, who has the contract for five wells in the vicinity of Glencoe for a New York Oil company, started the third well on the farm of Wm. Waterworth, near Woodgreen. The two wells already sunk have proved to be dry holes, although there was a small show of oil. In the well now being sunk a great deal of quicksand and water is being encountered.
