WATFORD, NOVEMBER 10, 1916

The Late Wm. J. Cline

The death took place in Warwick on Monday, Oct. 30th, 1916, of William J. Cline, widely known as a cattleman and farmer. Deceased was a native of Warwick tp., being born on the farm where he died. He resided in Warwick till he purchased a farm in Adelaide, on the Strathroy road, 11 years ago, which he sold in the spring of 1916, moving back to Warwick to his old home on the 4th line. He was in poor health for a couple of years and was a great sufferer. He was a lifelong member of the 4th line Anglican church on the old homestead. He also was a member of Havelock Lodge A. F. & A. M., Watford. He was married in 1906 to Miss Edith Casselman of Warwick, who survives him also, one brother, Jacob, of Warwick, and two sisters, Mrs. M. J. Cowan, Detroit and Mrs. Jas. Dunkeld, of Toronto, also a half brother, Samuel Burchill of the 4th line, Warwick, and a half sister, Mrs. Ernie Crumner of Chatham. The service was conducted by his Rector Rev. R. H. Diehl of Adelaide. The remains were laid to rest in Watford cemetery. The pall-bearers were Geo. Wilkie of Strathroy, Mr. Anderson of Oil Springs, Jas. French of Thedford, and three of his old neighbors, John Henderson, John Greer and Samuel Cameron.

We laid him to rest; where the sunbeams rest,
With the promise of a glorious to-morrow.

WARWICK.

Miss Addell Mellor, of Arkona, visited her sister Mrs. George Brent, last week.

The Warwick council at last meeting donated $1000 to the British Red Cross.

Dr. T. S. Kingston, Crosswell, Mich., visited relatives on the fourth line this week.

A meeting of the Women's Patriotic League will be held at the home of Mrs. Andrew Thompson, 15 side road, on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 15th. Come early.

A special service for men will be held in St. Mary's Church, Warwick village, next Sunday, Nov. 12 at 7.30. A hearty invitation is extended to all who can come.

The sacraments of the Lord's supper will be administered on Sunday next at 2.30 in the Zion Methodist Church, 2nd line east.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. McGillicuddy, of Exeter, spent the week end with the former's sister, Mrs. R. J. Lean, 4 con. Bosanquet.

Robt. McRorie, a brother of Wm. McRorie of this township, and a former resident here, died at South Port George, B. C., on Oct. 21st. He was about 60 years of age.

Rev. R. C. Burton, of Warwick Village will preach at Bethel Sunday evening the 12th inst, the pastor Rev. Mr. Brown, will conduct anniversary services at Warwick.

Has everybody brought in their old papers and magazines for the Red Cross collection? If not bring in at once to R. Johnston's shop Watford, and oblige the Kewpie Club.

Zion Methodist church, 2nd line, Warwick, will hold their Sunday School anniversary on Sunday, December 17th. An old fashioned tea meeting and entertainment is being arranged for the Tuesday night following December 19th. Full particulars later.

The many friends of Rev. H. J. Fair at Bethel extend to him their deepest sympathy in the death of Mrs. Fair which occurred at Atwood, on Friday the 3rd inst. Through the kindness of Mr. J. T. Smith and Mr. W. D. Thompson with their autos, a number attended the funeral at London on Monday.

The ladies mission circle of Bethel church met at the home of Mrs. C. N. Richardson last Thursday, and completed their work for the past year. The bale of goods will be shipped to the Deaconesses Home in Toronto. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:—President, Mrs. Will Vance; Vice-President, Mrs. W. H. Luckham; Sec. Treas., Mrs. Frank Campbell.

The Red Cross Workers' Union will meet at Mrs. T. Stillwell's on Wednesday, November 15. The new president, Miss Ethel Davidson, will assume her duties that day for the first time. If the members who have neglected to pay their fees will remember to pay them now the money will be very acceptable indeed, as we need to buy material at once.

Mr. John Muxlow, sr., returned home from the west on Saturday last after an extended visit with friends and relatives. He brought home with him specimens of wheat and oats grown in the Peace River district. The crops in the sections he visited were excellent, and the samples he brought with him were all that could be desired. He reports that all the Watford boys he met in Alberta are well and doing well.

The largest afternoon meeting held since the organization of Wisbech Patriotic League was that of Friday last at the home of Mrs. Jas. McIntosh, main road. The weather was exceptionally favorably, and over sixty ladies came to assist in making Red Cross supplies. Several articles were only partly completed, but the following were ready for immediate shipment to Hyman Hall:—1 mattress cover, 58 pillow covers and 10 hospital towels. While lunch was being served a collection amounting to $13.85 was taken up.

Another of Warwick's early settlers has passed into the great hereafter, in the person of Mrs. Jane Headley, relict of the late John McClelland, who passed away Tuesday morning, Oct. 31st, aged 88 years, 3 months and 13 days. Sixty-three years ago she first came to Warwick township, and throughout that period she ranked always as a woman of culture, refinement, sympathy, a kind neighbor, devoted mother and a true friend. Her home instincts were strong, and her affection for friends and kindred was tender and abiding. Truth was the inspiration of her life, and by kindness she exemplified its great worth. She was born in Hull, Quebec, being a daughter of the late David Headley, and was married in Ottawa, in 1848 to John McClelland, who predeceased her thirty years ago last April. They first took up their residence at Warwick village, and seven years later moved to the present homestead. She was the mother of twelve sons and three daughters, of whom six sons and two daughters survive her, namely: Hugh of Calgary, George of Vancouver, Joseph of Antigo, Wis., Robert of Watford; John and Samuel of Warwick, Mrs. Wm. Coultis of Forest, and Margaret at home. William died two years ago, while Esther, (Mrs. J. G. Wadsworth) died last May and the others died in infancy. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Wm. Burnette of Hull. The funeral took place from her late residence lot, 10, con. 2, Warwick, Nov. 3rd, at 1.30 o'clock, p. m. to St. Mary's church cemetery, Warwick village.

BROOKE

The annual meeting of the East Brooke Farmers' Club will be held on Tuesday evening, Nov. 14th. Members and others interested are requested to attend.—L. MACLEAN, President.

Mrs. J. R. Mossip and little son Cameron are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Corestine, Walnut.

Will Brooke people please make an effort to bring old newspapers and magazines to R. Johnston's shop, Watford, for the Red Cross.

Mr. Wm. W. Taylor has sold his high-stepping three-year-old to Mr. Harry F. Sifton of Highgate, Ont., for a handsome figure. The colt will be sent to New York city, U. S.

Very successful anniversary services were held in St. James' church, Brooke, on Sunday last. Large congregations were present both morning and evening. The Rev. W. J. Doherty, B. A., of London, preached two very helpful and forcible sermons.

CHOP STUFF

St. Thomas wants more Hydro.

John Gibson, an old resident of Petrolia, is dead.

Wm. McCrary, of Florence, died last week aged 84 years.

Strathroy butchers have made a general reduction of 5c per pound in the price of beef.

Petrolia Curling Club has reorganized for the winter with W. G. Fraser as president.

A farmer near Leamington had sixty acres of onions this year which brought him $35,000.

The Ailsa Craig Banner will issue a paper for Granton, to be called the Granton Banner.

Two Belgians from Enniskillen were fined $10 and costs for being drunk. It costs more than formerly.

A St. Thomas man got drunk on Peruna, a proprietary medicine said to contain a large quantity of alcohol.

The Enniskillen beet growers think the factories are not paying enough for the crop considering the high price of sugar.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dennis, of Sarnia, formerly of Enniskillen, commemorated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage last week.

Neil McGill sold his farm on the 14th con. of Bosanquet recently and has bought W. J. English's brick residence, Albert St., Forest.

Sergt.-Major George H. Stirrett, third son of Mayor Stirrett of Petrolia, has been awarded a D. C. M. for bravery in rescuing wounded from no man's land.

George A. Annett, of Cairo, reeve of Euphemia township, has entered an action against the Homewood Sanatorium of Guelph for $10,000 damages. He claims that he was assaulted and forced into the sanatorium and kept there for nearly a year against his will. The case will be heard at Guelph, and Mr. Annett will plead his own case.

Christopher Kauchenmaster died Sunday night at his late home in Hillsboro, in his 80th year. Death was caused from an injury to his head, which he sustained when he fell from an apple tree a few days ago. Mr. Kauchenmaster resided in Forest till September, when he moved out to the farm he recently bought in Hillsboro. He is survived by his widow.

The accidental discharge of a shotgun, in the hands of his chum, J. Hawkey, cost the life Monday of Gordon Graham, aged 19, son of John T. Graham, of Parkhill. The boys were hunting in Hutton's woods, about four miles east of here, at the time. Graham received the full charge of one barrel just above the stomach and died almost instantly. He had been a student at the high school.

Dr. W. H. Woods, Mt. Brydges' popular physician, has been making some extensive improvements in his residence and has now one of the most complete and comfortable homes to be found in any village in Ontario. The introduction of hydro has helped wonderfully in enabling him to install many modern conveniences that could not otherwise be had in a small town, and the doctor has availed himself of its use in so many ways that he now has a model home.
