—The house and furniture of Capt. Jas. Mitchell, of Sandy Cove, was completely destroyed by fire on Wednesday night.

—The winter, that not long ago was lingering in the lap of spring, now appears to be running away from a hot stove cover.

—Samuel Strong, Esq., a former well-known resident of Dartmouth, now residing at Middleton, paid his last visit to his dear old relatives living in town a flying visit yesterday.

—Call early and secure your tickets for the Musical Convention to be held on the Queen's Birthday, at Lunenburg; also see plan of the building, at the store of J. S. McCormick, Bridgetown.

—Carlyle W. Harris' coffin bore the following inscription: "Carlyle W. Harris, who was murdered May 8, 1893, aged 23 years 7 months 15 days. We would not if we had known."

—Dunn & Russell report 23 Canadian furs the last seven days, and 15 the corresponding week last year. The best report 27 Canadian furs this week and 20 the same week last year.

—Blood Young, Esq., of Lunenburg, had the misfortune to lose a valuable mare last week at Tremont. The animal, which belonged to Fred. H. Paine, was taken suddenly ill, and died within a few hours. Cause unascertained.

—MIDDLETON'S NEW CHURCH.—The cellar in dug for the new Episcopal church at Middleton, and work is progressing rapidly. An opinion seems to prevail that it should have been placed a little farther back from the street.

—Albert J. Parker, proprietor of the Canadian Queen, a monthly paper published at Toronto, has been nominated for a charge of fraud in connection with the growing competition conducted by him in connection with the paper.

—The memorial service and blue light exhibition to be held on Monday evening by the Salvation Army was postponed owing to a subsequent change. The service will be held on Friday evening 19th instant.

—The schr. Corcoran, Capt. Hickey, was towed to Annapolis yesterday by the steam tug David Parsons, of Digby. She has a cargo of hay and bricks for the eastern portion of the province and St. John's, Newfoundland.

—The many orders lately received for Wedding Stationery present to notice at the Commercial House on Tuesday at 11 a. m. The orders were for various styles and were for organization purposes.

—The remains of Mrs. Williams, mother of Mrs. Elliot, wife of Port George, who died on Monday last by the unfortunate collision of the schooner, and interred beside those of her husband in the Bridgetown Cemetery.

—The schr. Corcoran, Capt. Apt. from Boston, with a cargo of flour and coal for P. Nicholson, arrived on Saturday. She has a return cargo to the same port, also will carry 100,000 lbs. of lumber, shipped by Mr. E. S. Pigeon, who lately came to Lunenburg on a party for $20,000 at about $14 per m.

—There will be a rehearsal for the Musical Convention at Lunenburg on the 24th of May, in the Vestry of the Methodist Church, Bridgetown. Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, and at Grand Central in the Baptist Church, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All interested are invited to attend.

—The New York Times is not seriously impressed with the United States' position in the Behring Sea case. It says: "So far as a question of jurisdiction is concerned, these brilliant efforts of Mr. Carter and Mr. Conder seem like a tremendous effort to make the best of a weak case."

—Mr. Parmelee, controller of Chinese Immigration, at Ottawa, says if the United States officers attempt to land in Kiasan territory the 612 Chinese recently refused entry by Portland, Oregon, will be tested and the officers arrested. Canada will not be made a dumping ground for these deleterious.

—SHEPHERD'S SALES.—On the 15th inst., in front of Court House, Annapolis, Sheriff Morse sold the whole lot of goods, including, to John M. Troop, the mortgagee, for $250. On Saturday last, the goods were sold, the property of Mr. Geo. G. Heide, late agent for Lunenburg, took place at the Court House, Bridgetown. The property was bid by Sheriff Morse for $1500.

She was buried in the family cemetery on the 15th inst.

—The Valley Telephone Co. has recently run a line from Lunenburg to Mr. Troop's place, a distance of some two miles. Another line will be run today from opposite the residence of Hector MacLean, Esq., as far west as Middleton. Mr. John P. MacLean has an instrument placed in his store yesterday, his office with an instrument. Since his communication has been established between the central office and the station, G. A. Railway, a new impetus has been lent to the mining and agricultural industry of the district, and the rapid and satisfactory growth of the line is rapidly and satisfactorily being demonstrated.

—The Boston Advertiser makes the interesting statement that a shoe manufacturer in that city has taken out eight lasting machines from his workshop. It is alleged that these lasting machines will do the work which used to be done by hand. There was a time in the history of the shoe business when it seemed as if the wonderful development of machinery would give no chance whatever to the ordinary craftsman, but he will survive, and it would not seem as if he will be a clear case of the Albatross.
