M. H. HUNT.

CINCINNATI HONEY MARKET.

The demand from manufacturers is very good of late for extracted Southern honey and fair for clover honey in small packages for table use. Our stock of Southern honey has been reduced considerably and we shall be in the market again this fall. There were few arrivals lately and prices may be quoted at 3 to 7 cents a pound on arrival, according to quality.

Comb honey has been sold out, perhaps, better than ever before at this time of the year; only remnants of dark honey being left over. Choice white comb honey would bring readily 15 cents a pound in the jobbing way. No arrivals of new comb honey reached our city yet that we know of.

Beeswax is in fair demand and brings 20 to 22 cents a pound for good to choice yellow on arrival.

TESTED * QUEENS!

We have just run over our apiaries and find that we have yet 193 specially selected and tested queens, bred in July and August last year. They were selected from several thousand and we will guarantee every queen to give satisfaction. While they last we will let them go at only $1.75 each, or $1.50 each for six or more at a time. This is a rare chance to get queens at about half their value.
