

TO THE FRIENDS OF MISSIONS.

DECEMBER 1st, 1854, WILL BE PUBLISHED IN 12mo.

THE 11th NUMBER OF THE 1st VOLUME

OF THE

COTTAGER'S FRIEND,

AND

GUIDE OF THE YOUNG.

Monthly publication, neatly printed, containing 24 pages, 12mo. size, is designed for the instruction and entertainment of persons. Its plan comprehends: Biography; Juvenile Fables; Familiar Essays; Dialogues, or Narratives on Religious and Miscellaneous Subjects; Anecdotes; Brief Historical Relations; Extracts from interesting Books of Travels, &c. &c. of Natural history and Philosophy; Poetry, &c. &c. Considering the narrow limits of the Cottager's Friend, it is impossible to reduce all these topics into each number; but they will receive a share of attention.

The Editor earnestly recommends this Juvenile Magazine to the HEADS OF FAMILIES, CONDUCTORS OF SCHOOLS in general, and of SABBATH SCHOOLS in particular, as one which may be beneficially put into the hands of intelligent children and young people.

He has his ceaseless endeavour to illustrate the grand doctrines of the Gospel which belong to the "common salvation;" to promote the moral and intellectual improvement of its readers; to excite in
