

ANNALS

OF

ST ANNE DE BEAUPRÉ

EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.—THE DIRECTORS OF LEVIS COLLEGE.

CONTENTS.

Spiritual advantages to subscribers.—The Feast of Saint Anne in the missions of Dakota.—The worship and patronage of Saint Anne (continued): the Fathers of the Greek Church have taught that Saint Anne has merited her glorious maternity.—At St Anne de Beupré; notes.—Ste Anne d'Auray (concluded).—La Bonne Sainte Anne; from the city of Three Rivers to the Shrine.—Basilica of Ste Anne de Beupré: subscription for the altar of Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

All correspondence to be directed to Rev. C. E. CARRIER, Levis College, Levis, P. Q.

SPIRITUAL ADVANTAGES.

1^o Two masses are offered up every week, one on Monday, and the second, on Saturday, for subscribers and their families; 2^o another mass is said, on the first Friday of every month, for deceased subscribers.

—000—

THE FEAST OF SAINT ANNE.

—
IN THE MISSIONS OF DAKOTA.

A short letter from the faithful servants of Good Saint Anne, who inhabit the lovely plains lying around Turtle Mountain, Territory of Dakota, in the United States, will not be devoid of interest for the pious readers of the Annals.

The feast of Saint Anne was celebrated this year at our Mountain with an unusual concourse of people.