${f Volunteer.}$

By Goldsmith's Volunteer, he by Rysdyk's Hambletovian; Volunteer Jr.'s dam Miss Bar-ton, by imported Trustee. (See Wallace Am. Trotting Register, Vol. II, p 339)

VOLUNTEER, JR., was bred by Mr. Alden Gold smith, Blooming Grove, Orange Co., N. Y., is now six years old, 15:2, bright bay, black points with two white heels behind. He has a heavy mane and tail and is very stylish in appearance. Mr. (ioldsmith, from whom I bought him, says, "in style, size, color and action he can scarcely be distinguished from his size." He was never speeded a full mile in his life, but showed me a half-mile in 1:203 when I bought him.

I purchased this horse to serve Lady Hill; but he will serve a few mates at $25 for the sea son at my stable in this place. Mares not proving in foal will be served free next season.

Volunteer is the sire of Gloster, 2:17; Bodine, 2:19; Huntress, 2:203; Amy 2:221; St Julien, 2:221; Trio, 2:231; W. H. Allen, 2:241; Frank Wood, 2:24; Carrie, 2:241; and many other famous trotters.

Good pasturage furnished to mares from distance at $2 per month. escapes at risk of owners.
