

DEW DROPS

VOL. I.

TORONTO, JULY 24, 1897.

No. 30.

MISS TOWSEY FROWSEY.—(See third page.)

A little girl remarked: "When I make the bad thought go away, the hole fills up with more." One day, when reprov'd for behaving badly, she said, "It makes me feel bad inside unless I let the bad out."