

2.—(Col. the Hon.) Archibald, b. 15 April 1791, d. Oct. 1865; served in 1812 in 3rd York Militia, and was present at Queenston, where he was severely wounded, and at York (Toronto) when taken by the Americans, on which occasion he saved the colours of his Regiment from falling into the hands of the enemy, and at Lundy's Lane, where he was taken prisoner, being detained until the close of the war; was aftds. Col., and in 1837 commanded the left wing of the force by which the rebels threatening Toronto were defeated and dispersed; after this he was sent with dispatches to the British Minister at Washington, in which service he was exposed to great danger from the American "Sympathizers;" was called to the Bar in 1815 and practised in Cornwall; in 1817 he went by stage to Penetanguishene, and thence by canoe to Fort Garry, now Winnipeg, as legal adviser to the North West Company, which he represented when Lord Selkirk was arrested under a warrant issued from Montreal, returning late in the year, after having been given up for lost; was raised to the Bench in 1837, became Chief Justice in 1862, and President of the Court of Appeal in 1863. He m. Joan dau. of John MacPherson of Three Rivers, and had issue, viz.:

1*a*.—John-Neil, d. 1875, of Prescott, Barrister-at-Law, who at the age of 18 served in 1837 and was present at the defeat and dispersion of the rebels above referred to; m. his cousin Isabella above named, and had issue two daughters, Isabella and Mary-Elizabeth, both unm.

2*a*.—Archibald - George, Barrister - at - Law, of Toronto; m. Frances-Amelia MacNaughton, d. and has issue: 1*b*.—Archibald; 2*b*.—Duncan-John, of the Bank of Montreal at Sarnia.