The report of St. Andrew's Church, Sherbrooke, Rev. A. Lee, B.A., pastor, got out in neat form, and shows a prosperous year's work. The services have been well attended, and a Y. P. S. C. E. has been formed in the congregation. The financial reports show that the Ladies' Aid raised $496, and the Sabbath School $167. The entire amount raised for all purposes was $6,448. During the year a handsome brick church was erected at a cost of about $17,000, and of this sum $10,000 has already been subscribed, an amount which does credit to the liberality of the congregation.

An account of the work in British Columbia during the year 1889, written by Rev. D. Mackae, of Victoria, shows that the average contribution per communicant and per family in the presbytery of British Columbia is in advance of that in any other presbytery in the Canadian church. The average contributions towards all purposes in British Columbia was $42.00 per communicant and $56.42 per family, while throughout the church it was only $12.86 per communicant and $24.40 per family.

The annual meeting of St. Andrew's congregation, Lindsay, took place on January 27th, the pastor, Rev. R. Johnston, B.A., in the chair. All the departments of the work were shown by the reports to be in a healthy condition. Over $1,000 was subscribed during the year for the schemes of the church. A motion was adopted requesting the managers to formulate a scheme for the liquidation of the small floating debt resting on the church.
