

Strangers and new comers feel at home with us.

Special Notes.

Rev. G. A. Lawson preaches for us to-day.

"OUR PASTOR."—We are looking forward to next Sunday with pleasure, when we will meet "Our Pastor," Rev. J. H. Jenner, who, as his letter states, "will be with us and preach." He will at once enter upon his pastoral labours with us. We can make his work effective; in so far as we aid him by our prayers and efforts, thus his usefulness will be greatly felt. In a convention held somewhere, it was suggested how a Pastor's labors could be most helpful, and result in permanent good—"Boon him," "speak well of him," "talk him up." The same may be said about the Church—With united effort, Pastor and people will build up a strong and aggressive Church.

MISSION BAND EXERCISES.—Our Sunday School becomes a Mission Band once in every quarter—appropriate selections and exercises bearing on Missions and work, with letters from our Missionaries are given. These are interesting occasions. This afternoon you will be delighted, a special programme has been prepared, and Rev. G. A. Lawson will give a short talk on "Grand Leigne" Mission. Our Sunday School has for years supported "P. David," a native Telugu preacher. You will have pleasure in helping the School, make an offering for his support. "P. David," by his letters, gives ample proof of his genuine conversion to Jesus. He has done and is doing a grand work among his people in Heathen land.

CONGRATULATIONS.—Miss Daisy McDonald and Reginald H. Spurr were married by Rev. S. B. Kempton, D.D., on Wednesday, 25th. They have our best wishes. Providence, Rhode Island, will be their home.
