Here we have abundant proof of the careful and able exposition, the original thought, the wealth of illustration, the deep pathos, the stirring appeal, the helpful teaching, the profound spirituality which have combined to give Dr. Maclaren the place of a prince among preachers. ### TEN YEARS OF Upper Canada in Peace and War (1805-15).

Being the Ridout Letters, with Annotations by MATILDA EDGAR. 48/52
Demy, 8vo, 396 pp. Price, postpaid, $2.00.

"This is a book that will be read with the greatest pleasure by all Canadians. From the papers of the Ridout Family, Mrs. Edgar has obtained the material for one of the most interesting works of Canadian history. It treats directly of a few eventful years only, but indirectly it covers by its references and explanations that elastic period of time which laps two generations of men. Necessarily there is much original matter in the volume, but it is all essential to a proper understanding of the time and is remarkably well done. Mrs. Edgar has so arranged her story and the methods of telling it, that the difficulty is to lay the book down. In the chapters which precede the outbreak of the war are found pictures of the times, painted with all the ease and fidelity which familiar correspondence permits, and are little less interesting than the narrative of more exciting national occurrences. The letters of Mr. T. G. Ridout are literary accomplishments in themselves, and Mrs. Edgar's compilation of these and other documents, with her own contributions, have resulted in a most valuable addition to the library of Canada. The book will be read a first time for its romance, and be constantly referred to for its accurate and valuable information."—Montreal Herald.

FEBRUARY BOOKS.

SEVEN LECTURES ON THE CREDIBILITY OF THE PULPIT. By Rev. JOHN HENRY BARROWS. With introduction by Rev. F. E. Clark, D.D. 12mo, 75 cents.

"No candid reader can lay it aside without being convinced that the fundamental facts on which Christianity rests its claims have not been shaken by all the skeptical artillery of the ages."—Rev. F. E. Clark.

BROTHERHOOD. By MARY CRUGER. 12mo, $1.25.

A strong, intense, thoughtful story, in which the difficult problems of man's relation to man in various phases of social and business life are forcefully presented. It is a book full of earnest convictions, of sound reasoning, which in no way detracts from its interest as a bright, realistic story of dramatic character and incident.

BOY: A STORY FOR BOYS. By MARGARET SIDNEY. 12mo, $1.

This is one of those delightful studies of boy nature in which Margaret Sidney is so thoroughly at home. Not only the young hero, but all the different characters, are portrayed with the brightness and sympathetic touch peculiar to her, that make them seem like actual people. The story is genuinely healthful and interesting, and will be read not only with pleasure, but with profit.

GO RIGHT ON, GIRLS. By ANNIE H. RYDER. 12mo, $1.25.

Miss Ryder's love for girls, her intuitive understanding of their needs and tastes, enable her to reach the average girl and influence her for good as few writers for young people can do. Her "Hold up Your Heads, Girls," had a large and popular audience. This new book should appeal to an even larger class, who cannot fail to be interested and impressed in an unusual degree.

SUNDAY ALBUM FOR BOYS AND GIRLS. Arranged by Rev. J. R. SIMMONS. $1.25.

The compiler says in a prefatory note: "Many conscientious parents are troubled to find suitable and yet congenial occupation for their boys and girls on Sunday afternoons. This book has been prepared with the earnest desire that it might provide the children with the means of spending a profitable and pleasant Sabbath hour."

The plan of the book is certainly novel, and embraces an interesting search in the Bible for certain words pictorially represented. It deserves to be largely popular.

THE FIDALGOS OF CASA MOURA. Translated from the Portuguese by ROXANA L. DABNEY. 12mo, $1.50.

Our knowledge of Portuguese life, through the writings of native authors, has been somewhat limited. This story, by one of the most popular of Portuguese writers, shows us the home life, customs and characteristics of the people in an attractive light, while there is much of charm in the romantic incidents and the fine nobility of character gradually developed.
