"ST. AUGUSTINE" Sacramental Wine.

The REV. DR. COCHRAN writes: BRANTFORD, May 23rd, 1895

Messrs. J. S. Hamilton & Co. GENTLEMEN: - The St. Augustine Wine used in my own church on sacramental occasions, as well as in many other churches, I have always heard spoken of in the highest terms and is admirably suited for the purpose. Its deservedly high reputation for purity can be relied upon. The unfermented grape juice also commends itself to those who prefer that the wine should not be fermented and should have a large and increasing sale in our Presbyterian and other Churches.

HEALTH AND HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Wear old loose kid gloves when ironing, as they will save many callous spots on one's hands.

A delicious tutti-frutti may be made by taking a tablespoonful each of many kind of preserves and adding to it a quart of sweetened cream, using half a pound of sugar to one quart of cream.

A slice of bread toasted to a delicate brown and moistened with the juice from a hot, rare beefsteak is a little variation from the regulation toast, and appreciated by the invalid to whom small attentions mean a good deal.

A fine catsup can be made of cucumbers. Chop fine four good-sized onions, peel and take out the seed of three dozen ripe cucumbers and put in the bowl with the onions and chop; drain off the water and put in preserve jars. Heat a quart of vinegar, adding a scant teaspoonful of cayenne pepper, a tablespoonful of salt, and one of ground cloves; when just warm, turn over the chopped cucumbers so the jars are full, seal, and put in a cool place. Try it on fish.

A RELISHABLE BREAD PUDDING.

To be at its best, bread pudding must be carefully made. Take about four slices of stale bread, or its equivalent in fragments, remove all the crust, and pour about two cupfuls of boiling milk over them. Beat this thoroughly, until it is free from lumps, add one well-beaten egg, then stir again until the mixture is like thick cream. Add a little nutmeg, vanilla or other flavoring. Batter a pan, pour in the pudding, and bake in a quick oven. It should be put into the oven about fifteen minutes before serving, as it is sent to the table immediately upon being done. It will have risen into a very light and delicate loaf, which is extremely relishable. It may be served with hard sauce, or any dressing which is most like.

TOMATO CATSUP.

Tomato catsup is a favorite relish. Put one peck of ripe tomatoes and one quart of onions in a porcelain kettle and boil until a soft mash. Then press through a coarse sieve, add to it one quart of vinegar, one ounce of salt, one ounce of mace, one tablespoonful each of black pepper, cayenne pepper and ground cloves, and five pints of sugar. Return to the fire and boil several hours, stirring frequently. Bottle and seal.

A catsup generally used in the South is made with a peck of green tomatoes and a half peck of onions. Chop and put in a porcelain kettle with three ounces of mustard seed, one ounce of salt, one ounce of cloves, one ounce of allspice, half a pint of mixed mustard, one ounce of black pepper, one ounce of celery seed, and a pound of brown sugar. Cover with vinegar and place on the fire and boil slowly two hours; strain through a sieve, bottle and seal.

DELICIOUS TUSCAN PUDDING.

Make a boiled custard with one pint of milk, sweetened with half a cup of sugar, boiled and poured on three beaten eggs. Return the mixture to the saucepan and stir until it thickens, but do not let it curdle as it will if it boils for more than a second. When cool add one pint of cream, half a cup of sugar, a quarter of a box of gelatine, dissolved and strained, half a teaspoonful of vanilla, a quarter of a teaspoonful of essence of lemon, twenty drops of extract of bitter almond. Put in a mould with smooth sides and pack in ice and salt. The proportion is two quarts of broken ice to one of coarse salt, well mixed. In an hour remove the mould, and after wiping it carefully uncover it, and with a knife scrape the frozen cream from the sides. Beat it thoroughly, as this makes the texture fine and smooth. If it is nearly frozen add half a pound of sweet almonds, blanched and chopped fine, half a pound of candied ginger, cut in small pieces, and half a pound of citron prepared in the same way.
