

4. The best methods of imparting knowledge, how to present it to the understanding, how to fix it in the memory, how rightly to govern a class in receiving knowledge, and how to conduct a successful class recitation, together with the methods of instruction in each important branch of School work.

5. Methods of using books aright, and of investigating truth, by weighing evidence and by using the senses as instruments of research.

6. The physical, mental and moral constitution of the child, and the demands that society will hereafter make upon him.

To prepare for such an examination the candidate should carefully weigh his own experiences as a learner, should closely examine the methods in vogue in a good School, and should add to the impressions received from his general reading the results of studying such works as Abbott's Teacher, Morrison's School Management, the Quincy Methods, Baldwin's Art of School Management, a thorough knowledge of at least one of these books to be required."

The above recommendations were received and adopted.

Proposed amendments to the Regulations for Academy diplomas :—

Add to Section 1st, " Provided that they have already graduated in any British or Canadian University, taking both Latin and Greek, or have passed in the Intermediate Examinations, taking both Latin and Greek."

2. Add to Section 2, " After the word ' University,' the words—"who have passed in Latin and Greek in the Degree Examinations, or who have taken at least a second class standing in the Intermediate Examinations. (Latin and Greek being included.)"

The foregoing proposed amendments were received and left over for consideration till next meeting.

Report of Sub-Committee appointed to consider the distribution of Grants to Model Schools and Academies for the past year :—

" The Sub-Committee, having read the Inspectors' reports upon Model Schools and Academies, recommend grants to be made according to the scale in the schedule annexed.

" The Sub-Committee desire to draw attention to the following fact, which the Inspectors' reports disclose, viz. :—That the schools suffer for want of carrying out the 'course of study' ordered by the Protestant Committee.
