LOUIS S. McMURRAY.

Parish Notes.

Whitsun-Day shares with Christmas, Easter, and Ascension Days the glory of being one of the great Festivals of the Church. It should be to every one a day of reverent joy and gladness of heart. The coming of the Holy Ghost on Whitsun-Day was the beginning of the Church's life. It was the Birthday of the Christian Church since which every Christian may "walk in the comfort (or strength) of the Holy Ghost."

To those who have lately been confirmed, this coming Whitsun-Day will be a day of special gladness, for it is the day of their First Communion. As such, it is a day of fresh beginning; a day for renewing good resolutions; a day of hope; a day of the beginning of a close and
