ASK FOR THE Crown Lavender Salts

Refreshing and Invigorating

"These renowned Smelling Salts exhale a most delicious odor; they are a refreshment to the invalid, a delightful deodorizer and luxury for all.

By leaving the stopper out for a few moments a delightful perfume escapes, which freshens and purifies the air most enjoyably." - Le Follet.

Genuine only with the Crown Stopper and label of the "Crown Perfumery Co."

Reject worthless imitations offered under a similar name, and which only cause disappointment to the purchaser.

JOSEPH TAIT, M.P.P.

THE features of this gentleman are familiar to all who take an active interest in Provincial politics. Mr. Tait occupies a leading position in the ranks of the Liberal party, due to his powers as a platform speaker, in which capacity he is unrivalled. He has a ready command of language, a thorough knowledge of current political questions, a direct way of putting things and an unflinching fund of humor and repartee. As a rough-and-ready campaigner, able to sway the sympathies of an audience and hold his own against all comers, "Joe" Tait is invaluable to his party. His free-and-easy, off-hand, popular style is an agreeable contrast to the usual sour and solemn Grit type. He is a thorough partizan, but his instincts and predilections are all democratic, and his influence is generally thrown in the direction of progress so far as party exigencies will permit. The worst thing that his enemies were able to say against him was that, as representing Toronto under the Mowat gerrymander, he was member by Act of Parliament, but that reproach has lately been wiped out by the result of the last bye-election.

Excelsior Webster Pocket Dictionary

Gives the orthography and definition of about 25,000 words, among which are many words not usually found in a dictionary of this size. It can be most conveniently referred to and fits the Pocket, being especially prepared for that purpose. The dictionary is not a reprint but has been carefully prepared by competent hands to meet the general want for a book of this kind, and for the space it occupies has no superior in the publishing world. Containing 320 pages, double column.

Size 5 x 3 1/4 inches. Bound in extra cloth. Price, - 25 cts. Indexed, - 35 cts.
