Commercial.

MONTREAL MARKETS.

Montreal, Feb. 19th, 1902.

Ashes.—An absence of any business of moment is still reported and values are comparatively easy: at about $4.40 for first pots; seconds, $4; pearls, nominal, at about $6.50.

Cements and Firebricks.—The demand for these goods amounts to a mere bagatelle, and dealers find plenty of leisure time just now for curling, etc. Prices, however, rule steady, as follows: Belgian cement, $1.90 to $2; German, $2.35 to $2.50; English, $2.30 to $2.45; American, $2.35 to $2.50; Canadian, Beaver brand, $1.90; Star, $2.20; Silicas, $2.10; firebricks, $17.50 to $23.

Dairy Products.—The cheese market manifests a rather firmer tone this week, under improved enquiry, and English buyers are said to show more of a disposition to trade. We quote finest Ontarios, at 10 to 10½c.; finest Townships, 10 to 10½c.; Quebecs, 9½ to 10c. Butter is very firm in tone, it being claimed that 23c. has been paid for an extra fine lot of creamery. We quote 22 to 23c. for finest creamery; held goods, 21¼ to 21¾c.; dairy rolls, 16½ to 17½c.; dairy, 15 to 17½c.

Dry Goods.—Travellers' orders keep coming in well, and retailers generally are calling for deliveries of spring stocks. Payments are reported satisfactory, as a whole, and there is a gratifying fewness of failures. There are indications of some stiffening in cottons, and it is said some mills are indifferent about quoting ahead.

Furs.—The general comment of dealers in this line is concerning the continued lightness of receipts, offerings being much below the average at
