T. JAMES CLAXTON & CO., ST. JOSEPH ST., MONTREAL.*Mercantile Summary.CRUISERS are already leaving Halifax for the Newfoundland coast to engage in protecting the British fisheries from the encroachments of foreign fishermen and to preserve order among the restless spirits who congregate on the fishing grounds.Up to the end of last week navigation in the straits between Prince Edward Island, New Brunswick, and Nova Scotia was greatly interfered with by ice fields which shift about from place to place with the winds and currents.
At one time no less than five steamers were caught in the ice.AMONG the dissolutions of the past week we notice the firm of Messrs. Lamb & Cross, tea brokers, Toronto, the business of which is to be wound up, and that of Messrs. Massie, Patterson & Co., wholesale grocers of Guelph. In the latter firm the business will be continued under the style of James Massie & Co.Mr. GEORGE N. HENDERSON, who was an extensive builder in this city, has made an assignment. About three years ago he worked at his trade as a carpenter, but becoming dissatisfied with such a slow way of making money he branched out until he possessed between sixty and seventy houses. Ambitious builders can draw their own moral from this failure.At the adjourned annual meeting of the Canada Screw Company, held on the 15th inst.
the directors elected were:—Edwin G. Angell, President, also Pres. American Screw Co.; Clarke Thurston, Vice-President; Geo. F.
Burrows, Treasurer and Secretary. The residents of Dundas will be pleased to notice the rapid progress made in the buildings which will soon be completed. A large number of new machines are ready to be put in their places, and when the works are finished a good many operators will be required.
