

LETTER FROM DR. LIVINGSTONE.

The Bombay Gazette of August 30th publishes a letter from Dr. Livingstone to Sir Seymour Fitzgerald, dated March 12, 1872. It consists chiefly of geographical details, and concludes with the following passage: "I have been much longer than I intended—six years instead of two—but I have lost two whole years in time, been burdened by 1,800 miles of useless tramp, and how much waste of money I cannot say, all through the matter of supplies and men being entrusted to our Benian Indian fellow subjects, and they entrusted the whole thing to slaves, who lay and feasted on my stores for sixteen months, and then sold off all for slaves and ivory. The slave trade in all this region, and especially in Man-yuema, is carried on almost exclusively with arms, ammunition, and goods advanced to Arab agents by Banians. Their slaves needed no more than a hint, and all came and solemnly swore that they were told not to follow, but force me back. They forced me back 500 miles, and again I had to come 300 miles to seize goods sent here by another set of slaves; and my agent at Zanzibar believes all they tell him. It was stated in the House of Lords, on the authority he receives, that all my wants had been supplied; while I virtually got only what I myself sent to Ujiji in 1866. But I am all right and ready, by Mr. Stanley's help, and will be off as soon as 50 men come from the coast.

"I have, &c.,
"DAVID LIVINGSTONE,
"Her Majesty's Consul, Inner Africa.
"P.S.—I have requested vaccine virus to be sent by mail, and will feel obliged if it is forwarded to Zanzibar at your convenience, addressed to John Webb, United States Consul. It will be sent on safely."
