

1987 as part of the redeployment of Canadian staff in France. An Honourary Consul will shortly be appointed to Strasbourg.

Presidential Visits to Canada

President François Mitterrand will be the third French President to pay an official visit to Canada. Mr. Vincent Auriol was the first French Head of State to do so, in 1951. General de Gaulle visited Canada in 1960 and 1967, both times as President of the Republic.