

Canada cannot support the proposition for financial compensation for oil-based economies that would see oil revenues diminish as a result of mitigative actions by Annex I Parties to meet their emissions targets. From our perspective, Parties should be encouraged, not penalized, to undertake mitigative actions to meet the objectives of the Convention.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman