

In concluding, I should like on behalf of the Canadian Delegation to commend the Secretary-General for the report which he has submitted on World Refugee Year. We appreciate that World Refugee Year has added to the already heavy burden of his Office. His report leads me to believe that he has gladly taken on these additional activities in the great humanitarian spirit which has always animated him in the past. For this, we warmly thank him.