

redundant regulation, and to remove obstacles to economic growth. We intend to attract investment in Canada, from Canadians and from investors in Germany and other parts of the world. And we intend to restore ourselves to what we consider to be our rightful position as a consummate trading nation.

So watch Canada. Canada and Germany have done a great deal together in the past. We will do a great deal more together in the future.

Thank you.