2. (a) and (b) The procedures and deadlines, to ensure that the recommendations of the Treasury Board classification audits are either implemented or the failure to implement justified are as follows:

- (1) After receipt of any Treasury Board Secretariat Audit Report, the deputy head has 60 working days in which to review the recommendations and respond either with a description of action taken or with a plan of action which will include specific target dates. Such plans are subject to Treasury Board Secretariat approval and monitoring.
- (2) In those cases where misclassifications have been identified, the departmental plan must indicate agreement or disagreement with the Treasury Board secretariat decision:
  - (a) where the department agrees, it has 15 working days after the filing and acceptance of its response to notify the employee and advise the Treasury Board secretariat;
  - (b) in the case of disagreement, and in consultation with the department, the Treasury Board secretariat arranges for an independent investigation and a decision binding on both parties to be rendered within 30 working days of the mandate for the investigation being given to the third party, which usually is an interdepartmental classification committee;

[Mr. Stevens.]

- (i) if the original level of the position is upheld, the position is no longer considered misclassified;
- (ii) if the third party confirms that the position is misclassified, the department has 15 working days to notify the employee and advise the Treasury Board secretariat.
