The Acting Speaker (Mr. Paproski): I declare the motion carried.

Mr. Lewis: Mr. Speaker, I wish at this time to confirm, after discussions among House leaders, that tomorrow will be an allotted day.

Mr. Milliken: Mr. Speaker, there have been discussions among the parties and I think you will find a disposition, notwithstanding Standing Order 57, to allow the speeches to proceed on the basis of 10 minutes each in the usual allocation, unless the speaker for one of the parties stands up and indicates that he or she will be speaking for 20 minutes. The normal rule will be 10 minutes.

Mr. Hawkes: Mr. Speaker, I want to confirm for the assistance of the Speaker that if an individual party would like to take 20 minutes for one member, then he or she would so notify the Chair at the beginning of the speech.

Otherwise it will be two speakers per party in the normal rotation and 10 minutes each.

Mr. Axworthy (Saskatoon—Clark's Crossing): Yes, that is the understanding of the NDP, too, Mr. Speaker.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Paproski): It is so agreed. The hon. member for Prince Edward—Hastings.
