the pleasure of welcoming you back, but on the other hand I wanted to explain rather carefully just how the report came into existence, and our reasons for submitting it to you. I should be very pleased indeed if you could spare the time to talk the matter over, and I am always in town from Monday noon till Friday noon.

With very kindest regards, and congratulating you on your appearance of robust health, I beg to remain,

Yours faithfully,

A. P. Murray.
