

June 16, 1923.

-2-

upon your M.A. and a share in residence duties you should not be hindered in completing all your examinations, and in making good progress with your thesis, which you might possibly have to complete later. This was the case with Miss Pickel you will remember.

Yours very sincerely,

Warden.