Officer of Louisbourg, that, as the Terms of the Capitulation were fo generous, in regard to the Inhabitants, that there was no Doubt to be made of their Meeting with a like generous Treatment in France, and that the Petitioners would be difpatch'd to England without Delay.

That the Petitioners had been arriv'd above 20 Days, and that they and their Men fuffer'd very feverely for want of fresh Provisions; that great Numbers of them lay fick, and that the Cause, as they humbly conceiv'd, was their living on falt Provisions entirely, and drinking nothing but ropy Water that was noisom to the Smell.

That the Petitioners had been deny'd all Manner of Supplies for their Veffels, tho' never fo abfolutely neceffary.

That, if the Petitioners had Leave to fail directly for England, it would be fome confiderable Time before they could be difpatch'd from thence.

That, as the Petitioners Return to New England would at beft be very late in the Year, and their Voyage by Confequence very cold, comfortlefs, and dangerous, every Day was very valuable to them; and befides, that their being detain'd fo long was very expensive.

The Petitioners therefore pray'd, that his Honour would take the Premisses and their
