

CHAPTER X. P. 74—91.

Acadie restored to France in 1632. De Razilli sent there to take possession. The Recollets return there in 1633. Grant to Latour. Jesuits' missions. Appendix—3d article of treaty of St. Germain, &c.

CHAPTER XI. P. 92—97.

Discord between LaTour and D'aulnay after Razilli's death. 1638. Royal letter to D'aulnay. Charles de la Tour visits Quebec in 1640. 1641. Royal letter to arrest Latour. Latour seeks aid from Boston, 1642.

CHAPTER XII. P. 98—108.

D'aulnay attacks Latour's fort at St. John in 1643. Charles Latour and his wife escape to Boston. Debates there in consequence. Latour obtains aid, and drives D'aulnay off from St. John. D'aulnay goes to France. Madame Latour goes to Europe in 1644. Brings out three merchant ships, with cargoes. Her lawsuit in Boston, 1645. She defends St. John with success. Appendix—Treaty made by D'aulnay's agent with Massachusetts.

CHAPTER XIII. P. 109—116.

1646. D'aulnay's commissioners negotiate at Boston. The sedan chair. D'aulnay again besieges St. John. Madame la Tour capitulates. D'aulnay hangs the garrison. Madame Latour dies. Latour's misfortunes. 1648. He visits Quebec. 1650. D'aulnay dies. Appendix—Abstract of D'aulnay's commission.

CHAPTER XIV. P. 117—123.

1651. Latour restored to his authority as governor of Acadie, and receives possession of the fort at St. John. 1652. Madame D'aulnay's compact with the duke of Vendome. 1653. Marriage of Latour to D'aulnay's widow. Grant to M. Denys of the gulf coast, from Canso to cap des Rosiers. Appendix—Latour's new commission abstracted. Contract of the duke of Vendome with madame D'aulnay. Marriage contract between Latour and madame D'aulnay.

CHAPTER XV. P. 124—132.

1654. Le Borgne's shipments and assumption of power as creditor of D'aulnay's estate. Adventures of Denis de Fronsac. He is made prisoner by le Borgne. The English summon Latour, who surrendered. They besiege Port Royal. Le Borgne capitulates. Lahève captured. Denys forced to give up Chedabouctou to La Giraudière. Returns to France, and is reinstated. A fire ruins his commercial prospects. Appendix—Articles of capitulation of Port Royal in 1654.

CHAPTER XVI. P. 133—139.

1655. Treaty of Westminster between England and France. Acadie granted by Cromwell; to Latour, Temple and Crowne. 1657. Sir Thomas Temple made governor of Nova Scotia by Oliver Cromwell. Le Borgne commissioned by the French king. 1658. Le Borgne made prisoner at La Hève by the English. 1663. Grant of the islands of Madelaine, &c., to Doublet. Earthquakes over the continent. Sagadahock granted to the duke of York. 1664. Louis XIV established the Compagnie des Indes Occidentales. Appendix—Abstract of patents from Cromwell, &c.