MARY PUTNEY WINS IN STRAIGHT HEATS

Splendid Performance of Three-Year-Old Trotter in Grand Circuit Race.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 21.—Grand Circuit racing today over the Columbus track brought to prominence Mary Putney, a 3-year-old that Chauncey Sears of Fall River, Mass., bought two weeks ago from Walter Cox, with Dick McMahon as her driver the filly took in straight heats the horse review turfily, for which there were seventeen starters. This field was the largest three-year-old one ever known.

Deroche was expected to win. The deers colt was forced to go a long mile the first heat and finished a fairly good second to Mary Putney, who in the last quarter of each mile stepped away to win by herself plenty to spare. Colorado Range earned second money by standing a hard drive that landed him second in the last heat.

Peter Scott was an easy winner in the Hester-Columbus $10,000 stakes. Summaries: 214 class, pacing, three in five, purse $100, 3 heats Monday.

Fashion Coats for Fall Wear in Both Full Back and Semi-Form-Fitting Styles

SMART Styles in Slip-in Coats are shown in special range of "Fashion Clothes" coats. The velvet collar is shown quite prominently this season. A feature of this make is that, with every coat that has a velvet collar, a ready cut-out collar of the material is supplied to replace the velvet collar when it becomes soiled or worn.

The skirts all flare, and have box back effect or deep vent. Single or double-breasted styles—full back or form fitting—velvet or self collars. All have wide and rolling lapels. All coats button through. They are made from those beautifully soft materials, with the plaid backs, and many are heavy enough to wear all winter; materials that never look shabby no matter what wear they get. Splendid mixtures—hatterlike effects in browns, grays, greens and fawns. But it's hard to do these patterns justice in print. Come and see them. They are distinctive and smart as they can be.

The coats are lined in yoke and sleeves with silk or satin. Sizes 34 to 40. Prices, $25.00 to $35.00.
