CANADA LAW JOUNNAL.

Mr. Drayton was born in Kingston, Ont., in April, 1869, and although still a young man, he has had considerable experience at the Bar, to which he was called in 1891. Crown Attorney for the County of York from 1904 to 1909, he became, in the following year, Corporation Counsel for the city of Toronto. In 1911 he was appointed a member of the Light and Power Commission of Ontario, both of which offices he held at the time of his appointment as Chief Commissioner of the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada.

His experience in railway matters has not been inconsiderable, and he brings to his new position a wide knowledge of affairs, an acquisitive mind, sound judgment, and firmness of purpose, all essential attributes for the work now before him. That he should have become at a comparatively early age the senior member of one of the most important tribunals in Canada, is in itself no mean tribute. We believe results will shew that the interests of the public are in safe hands, and that he will be an honour to the railway Bench.

DOMICILE.

- I. Definition and to what it applies.
 - 1. Domicile in Roman Law.
 - 2. Domicile and residence are distinct.
 - 3. Three kinds of domicile.
- II. Domicile of origin.

III. Domicile of choice.

- IV. Doctrine of Moorhouse v. Lord.
- V. Effect of Udny v. Udny and subsequent cases.
 - (a) Re Martin.
 - (b) Winans v. Atty.-Gen.
 - (c) Mr. Westlake's summary.
- VI. The case of Huntley v. Gaskell.
- VII. Summary of effect of this case.
 - 1. Definition, and to what it applies.

"A person's domicil is that country in which he either has

474