

- Whalers' explorations round South Shetlands, i. 16, 17, 18
- Whales, Bay of, i. 46, 47, 49, 167, 175, ii. 298; inner part frozen over, i. 251; departure from [northward bound], ii. 162; survey of the south-western corner, ii. 265; whaling prospects, ii. 278
- Whales: near the Barrier, ii. 273, 298; the finner and the blue whale, ii. 274; dead whale mistaken for land, ii. 299
- Whips and lashes, i. 359; a whip-handle duel, i. 361
- Wild, companion of Shackleton (October, 1906), i. 39
- Wilkes, Lieutenant Charles (American explorer), i. 9
- Wilson, Dr., surgeon and artist of the Discovery expedition, i. 26
- Wind: prevailing from the south, ii. 186; measurements of the, ii. 381 (Appendix)
- Wind-waves (castrugi), ii. 107, 108
- Winter duties, i. 279
- Winter, end of the, i. 346 et seq.
- Wisting: his way with the dogs, i. 102; in charge at Framheim, i. 210; his sewing-room, i. 319; one of the Pole party, ii. 20; cooks the dog outlets, ii. 65, 69; makes a chocolate pudding, ii. 170
- Zappfe, Mr., his assistance in fitting out the expedition, i. 79

THE END