

We have examined the book, together with the vouchers for all expenditures since last audited by committee:

Receipts.

|                                       |           |
|---------------------------------------|-----------|
| For per capita tax .....              | $ 620.19 |
| Returned by W. F. of M. ....          | 540.00    |
| Balance on hand last convention ..... | 45.35     |

Disbursement.

|                                    |          |
|------------------------------------|----------|
| For the exploration .....          | $ 97.00 |
| Secretary-Treasurer's salary ..... | 120.00   |
| Incidental .....                   | 598.75   |

Total disbursement .....

---

$815.75

|                      |            |
|----------------------|------------|
| Total receipts ..... | $1,175.84 |
| Disbursements .....  | 815.75     |

Balance on hand April 10th, 1903...$ 360.09

M. P. McANDREW,
J. C. TYRRE,
M. P. VILLENEUVE,

Committee.

On per capita tax, as reported and the committee's disbursements, with the funds of the convention.

HALL OF RECORDS.

Moved that a vote be given to the nomination and election of officers.

Nominations for President were declared in order.

Bro. P. R. McDonald, of Rockland, was nominated. Bro. G. F. Dougherty, of Greenwood was also placed in nomination. Nominations closed.

On the ballot being taken, Bro. McDonald received 13 votes, Bro. Dougherty 9.