

, flint and
lead, a tin
, the other
which will asting your yourselves

dles, awls,
also one or
mocassins ;
Independ-

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

The Start.—Gen. Tom Thumb.—Halifax.—Astor House.—American Railways.—Philadelphia.—Baltimore Beauties.—A Clinical Professor.—Mark Tapley's Eden.—The great Missouri.—Drinks.—New Orleans.—Night Adventure.—Creole Ladies.—Col. White's Oratorio of "David."—Page 1.

CHAPTER II.

Arkansas forests.—Deer-shooting.—The Major's good shots.—Fire-Pan-hunting.—Fine fat Bucks.—Still-hunting.—First night in the Woods.—Panther shot.—Black bait for an Alligator.—Assassination of a Bear.—Page 27.

CHAPTER III.

Mammoth Caves.—Stalactite Architecture.—Ancient America.—Rambles in the Earth.—Mummy found.—Subterranean Ball.—St. Louis Hunting Club.—A good run.—A fat Buck killed.—Hospitable Hunters.—Kentucky talked down.—American Fur Company.—Page 48.