

C O N T E N T S.

- CHAP. VI. The discoveries of Americus Vesputius, and other adventurers. What caused the spirit of discovery. page 43
- CHAP. VII. Columbus again acquitted. Undertakes a fourth voyage. Discovers the coast of Terra Firma and the Isthmus of Darien. Returns to Hispaniola. His reception there. Pursues his discoveries to the coast of Terra Firma. He is driven to Jamaica, and shipwrecked on that island. His distresses there, the rebellion of his men which he suppresses. He leaves the island and returns to Spain. His reception there. He dies. 47
- CHAP. VIII. The character of Columbus. Some reflections on the conduct of the court of Spain. 57
- CHAP. IX. The discoveries and conquests of Balboa. Velasquez sends Cortes on the Mexican expedition. The state of the Mexican empire. Cortes makes an alliance with the Tlascalans. 62
- CHAP. X. Cortes builds La Vera Cruz. He marches to Mexico. His reception by Montezuma. Cortes imprisons Montezuma. That prince's stratagem to gain his liberty; the consequence of it. 70
- CHAP. XI. The attempts of Montezuma to make the Spaniards leave Mexico. The arrival of Narvaez to take the command from Cortes. Cortes leaves Mexico. Defeats and takes Narvaez prisoner. The Spaniards in Mexico besieged. Cortes raises the siege. Montezuma is killed. 79
- CHAP. XII. Guatimozin chosen emperor by the Mexicans. He besieges the Spaniards in their quarters. Obliges Cortes to retire out of the city. Distresses him in his retreat. The battle of Otumba. Cortes retreats to Tlascala. 90
- CHAP. XIII. Spaniards sent against Cortes join him. He marches again to Mexico. A conspiracy against his life baffled. 98