

- Literature, effect of, in Roman and Indian empires, 65-68.
 Lithuania, Roman law in, 102.
 Lyall, Sir A. C., 35, 51.
- Manipur, 24.
 Marquardt, 30.
 Military Character of Roman and Indian empires, 12, 13.
 Mitteis, Dr. L., 93, 94.
 Mogul emperors, 7, 10.
 Muhammadan law, administered in India, 105-111.
 Municipalities, in India, 31.
 Musulman law, administered in India, 105-111.
- Napoleon, codes of, 100.
 Non-regulation provinces, in India, 33.
 Nuncomar, execution of, 111.
- Parsis, in Parliament, 46.
Patria Potestas, 93.
 Penal Code, in India, 113, 118.
Peregrini, aliens, in Roman law, 84, 86, 124.
 Persia, 12.
 Philippine Islands, occupation of, by United States, 2, 32, 73.
 Poland, Roman law in, 101, 102.
 Polybius, 9.
 Polygamy, among Eastern peoples, 129.
 Portuguese empire, 50.
 Privy Council, appeal to, 105, 109, 115.
 Procedure Codes, in India, 113, 118.
 Procopius, 55.
- Protected states, in Roman and Indian empires, 5, 34.
 Province, meaning of the word, 33.
 Provincial government, under Roman empire, 25, 26, 28, 30, 85.
- Railways, in India, 13, 20.
 Rajputs, 60.
 Religious feeling: in ancient and modern world, 48-52; effect of, in Roman and Indian empires, 62-65; no obstacle to spread of Roman law, 95.
 Representative Government: no place in the ancient world, 30; or in India, 47.
 Road builders, Roman and English, 20-23.
 Romano-Germanic empire, 98, 99.
- Rome: Roman empire compared with Indian empire, 5-72; diffusion of Roman law by conquest, 82-92; establishment of one law for the empire, 92-97; extension of Roman law after fall of western empire, 97-102; Roman law compared with Indian law, 123-127; present position of Roman and English law, 131-133.
 Romilly, 112.
 Russia: extension of dominion by, 2, 8, 54, 73; adoption of Roman law by, 80, 101.