

- Ohio, unstable friendship, 269; warns Washington, 274; at Fort Necessity, 275.
- Halfway Covenant, 200; outgrowth, 221; effect of the Great Awakening, 225, 231.
- Hallucinations, psychology, 191.
- Harvard College, Increase Mather non-resident president, 203, 208; liberalism, 203, 208, 213, 214, 219; question of the charter, 206, 210; question of religious test for its officers, 207; Mather displaced and Willard made head, 208; Leverett president, 210; condemns Whitefield, 229; Louisburg cross, 256.
- Hathorne, John, judge of Salem witches, 169.
- Hébert, Louis, first farm at Quebec, 89.
- Hendrick, Mohawk chief, at Lake George, 299; killed, 299.
- Hennepin, Louis, character, 125; false claims, 126; with La Salle, 126; sketches Niagara Falls, 126.
- Henry IV. of France, grants monopoly in fur-trade, 36, 38, 59; grant to Monts, 49; favours Champlain's scheme, 59; murdered, 73; results of abandoning his policy, 73.
- Hiawatha, Onondaga chief, conceives Iroquois confederacy, 47.
- Hibbins, Ann, execution for witchcraft, 146-148.
- Hobbs, Deliverance, confesses to witchcraft, 175.
- Hochelaga (Montreal), Cartier's visit, 16-19; typical Iroquois town, 18; destroyed, 42. See also Montreal.
- Holyoke, Edward, president of Harvard, condemns Whitefield, 229.
- How, Elizabeth, executed for witchcraft, 168.
- Howe, George, Viscount, English general, Abercrombie's lieutenant, 317; ancestry, 317; military insight, 319; death, 320; effect of his death, 320, 325; monument, 321.
- Howe, Richard, Lord, intercepts French troops, 282; ancestry, 317.
- Howe, Sir William, ancestry, 317; at Quebec, 355.
- Hudson Bay and Vignau's story, 83.
- Hudson River, Verrazano enters, 10, 28; Allefonsce explores, 27; belief in its union with the St. Lawrence, 27; early French fur-trade, 28.
- Huguenots, attempted colonies, 33; not allowed in Canada, 90.
- Huron Indians, kin to the Five Nations, 47; location, 48; refuse to join the confederacy, 48; consequent annihilation, 49, 101; allied with Algonquins, 49, 64; friendship necessary to the French, 63, 64; and Champlain attack an Iroquois village, 86-88; remnants in Ohio valley, 263.
- Illinois, Algonquin Indians, Nicolet encounters, 100; Iroquois invade, 129, 263.
- Indians, facetiousness, 22, 66; migrations, 43; pestilence in Massachusetts, 54; French policy, 62-64, 70, 71, 105, 239; consulting of tutelary spirits, 67; warfare, 68-70, 283; missions, 86, 89, 92, 103; Northwest tribes, 99, 106; and Frontenac, 116; idea of land selling, 238; both French and English incite Indian raids, 239-241; destruction of Maine, 243, 244; bounty for their scalps, 245; Lovewell's fight, 245-248; decline of French influence, 261-267; Ohio valley tribes, 263; vacillation, 269; as French allies, 288, 298, 301, 308, 310, 313-315, 338, 346;