

The Question of Transportation is Important in Choosing a Homesite

Few high-class suburban sections can successfully compete with Briar Hill Park in transportation facilities. The Metropolitan line passes the property on Yonge street. It is expected that a line will be constructed on or near to Avenue Road through the "Park," and a line on Bathurst street to the west of the property seems very probable. Apart from the great natural beauty, the desirability of the location, the convenience to Churches, Schools, Colleges, Stores, Banks, Bowling Green and Golf Links, BRIAR HILL PARK should attract the prospective homesite seeker because of its excellent transportation facilities.

As an investment proposition there is none on the market with a better prospect of paying a handsome profit.

Lots are selling to-day at $15.00 a foot and upward with every prospect of a very substantial rise in value in the near future.

Spend Saturday afternoon at BRIAR HILL PARK. A representative of the Company will be at the office at Stop 19, Yonge Street Metropolitan line, to give you all desired information.

SEVEN THOUSAND ORANGEMEN MARCHED IN RECORD PARADE

Speeches Made By Some Prominent Members Advising All Orangemen to Stand Together Prepared to Fight for Their Rights—"Tommy" Church Wore Orange Sox.

There is only one way to describe the Orange demonstration held in Toronto yesterday. That is by classifying it as the most successful turnout ever seen in this city.

The speakers of the afternoon drew rounds of applause from the large audience which sat on the grass or stood in front of the band stand near the manufacturers' building at the exhibition grounds.

In introducing Acting Mayor Church, County Master Crawford drew attention to the fact that the controller had descended from an Orange family which had lived in Toronto for seventy years, and Mr. Church was a member of the order himself.

Imperial Defence. It was with great pleasure that the acting mayor, when he knew that it stood for one flag, one king, one navy, one school and one language. He hoped that the Hon. Mr. Borden would come back from England with a plan formulated for the part Canada was to take in imperial defence. The time had come when Canadians should cease leaning on British working people and bear a share of the navy tax. Referring to the strength of the order Mr. Church said that the past the Orangemen had taught both political parties lessons, and the time might soon come when they would have to repeat.

Congratulations. The county master read cable despatches from Fred Dane, grand master of Ontario West, and James L. Hughes, who are both in the old country. A despatch was also read from T. R. Whitteide, M.L.A. from Vancouver, asking to be remembered to the "Boys." Canon Dixon, county chaplain, made a very humorous speech and impressed the audience with the necessity of maintaining the Protestant faith.

Birth of Democracy. The battle of the Boyne was the culmination of 500 years of struggle by the British people, said Controller Hocken, speaking on "The Day We Celebrate," to escape from the thralldom of papacy. On the 12th of July, 1690, the Boyne on the 12th of July, 1690, the world witnessed the birth of British Democracy. The victory put an end to the theory of the Stuart dynasty that kings ruled by divine right. It forever disposed of the papal claim that the King of England was subservient to Rome.

Suppression. In Quebec canon law of the Roman church prevailed in defiance of British law. In that province, continued

Mr. Hocken, there was neither free speech or free press permitted. It was a crime to protest against an inefficient school system because it was under the control of the bishops and priests.

There it was an offence to work for the intellectual welfare of the masses. The French province showed the principle of papal supremacy as fought for by James II. On the other hand the Province of Ontario demonstrated the principle of civil and religious liberty won by the Prince of Orange. The forces against which William fought were at work in Canada. They were not protected by the armor of old, but worked secretly using sophistry and subterfuge to approach the government and demand concessions.

"We must tell them that Ontario, however, is a British province, where only the English language will be recognized. As far as the question of legal rights is concerned the French language is a foreign tongue in Ontario."

Loss of Privileges. "If the people of Ontario," declared Mr. Hocken, "fall in this duty if the government thru fear of losing office is content to surrender concessions to priests before party and stand by that religion. If the Protestants are still for another 100 years, papal supremacy would reign over Ontario too."

Another Battle. J. H. Burnham, M.P. of Peterboro, predicted that if matters progressed as at present, the day would be another Battle of the Boyne in the near future. The Pope had issued his war cry and it was time for the Protestants to buckle on their armor. Mr. Burnham stated that the Protestant churches had gone back 30 per cent. from their former strength.

Home Rule. One reason against home rule for Ireland, said W. D. McPherson, M.L.A., speaking on "Home Rule," was that it would mean the separation of Ireland from England. He was strongly against the agitation for separate government for the Irish and advanced several arguments against it.

E. W. J. Owens, M.L.A., and Dr. Thornton also spoke.

The Parade. It was rather late when the parade left Queen's Park, led by the "true Blues" in carriages, but the Orangemen lost none of their enthusiasm, although the pavements were hot and dusty. As the long line wended its way down Yonge to Queen the thousands of spectators, lining the streets and perched on every point of vantage, broke into cheers that gladdened the hearts of the marchers. Hundreds of yards of orange ribbons, baskets upon baskets of orange lilies, thousands of badges—all tended to make a gorgeous spectacle; white horses, ridden by officers, pranced in front of the different lodges, while on either side the bright sun struck the unheated armor carried over the shoulders of some of the paraders, lending a touch of splendor to the otherwise sinister aspect of the weapons.

Lots of Music. The city regimental bands, broken into parties, discoursed the march music of the old favorite Orange pieces; the numerous file and drum bands filled the air for miles with their snappy renditions of the "Protestant Boys," or "Rise, Sons of William, Rise," etc.; here and there a brass band played some of the latest airs.

W. D. McPherson was very much in evidence at the head of Milpach Lodge and Magistrate Peter Ellis also swelled the ranks. Aid. Yeomans rode in a carriage.

Orange Sox. None in all the host wore the "plug" so gracefully as Acting Mayor Church. With a pair of orange sox, which were the pride of the parade, "Tommy" tramped with the boys. On his face, as he plodded along, was a characteristic board-of-control smile, while under his plug hat his fertile brain was busy with a fine program of racing events was run off.

Ald. McBrien, "The Boy Wonder from Ward 4," was conspicuous on a white charger.

There was plenty of food left after the paraders had finished their repast and gone to the grand stand, where a fine program of racing events was run off.

As stated before, it was the largest parade ever held in Toronto. The ranks of the lodges were swelled by hundreds of new members and it is estimated that nearly 7000 Orangemen turned out. This is an increase of 500 over last year.

G. W. Verral walked with Grass Hill Lodge, No. 191, of Weston.

BIG DEMONSTRATION AT 800. SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., July 12. (Special.)—Three thousand Orangemen, representing 45 lodges from East and West Algoma and Northern Michigan, participated in a celebration here to-day. The parade this afternoon was two miles long and was the largest ever held under Orange auspices in the northwest at the request of city officials the banner "Bilingualism must be Abolished" was taken down from the principal thoroughfare.

Rev. C. O. Johnston of Toronto addressed the lodges.

8000 AT KEMPTVILLE. KEMPTVILLE, July 12. (Special.)—Eight thousand people gathered for to-day's Orange celebration, including crowds from Ottawa, Avonmore, Brockville, Prescott and Perth. The parade was a mile long.

BROKE RECORDS AT MT. FOREST. MOUNT FOREST, July 12. (The largest Orange celebration ever held took place in this town to-day when over five thousand people took part in the demonstration. The town was gaily decorated with arches, flags and evergreens. Lodges from the Counties of West Wellington, North Perth and South Grey to the number of about fifty were in the parade.

The procession was headed by R. W. Bro. Harry Lovelock, Past Grand Master, Ontario West, and H. B. Morphy, K.C., M.P., County Master, Listowel.

WINNIPEG ORANGEMEN SOAKED. WINNIPEG, July 12. (Can. Press.)—Thousands of Orangemen, banded with purple and gold, paraded thru the city this morning. There were six thousand members of the city orders and four thousand from outside lodges.

A sudden drizzling shower broke over the procession just as it was passing thru the centre of the city. Every man of the ten thousand in the procession was soaked, but the line never broke and, dripping water, the Orangemen marched right on despite the fact that they had a three-mile parade of them to go.

Heavy showers tended to spoil the picnic at Assiniboine Park, but nothing could dampen the enthusiasm.

LARGE RALLY AT FISCH. CORNWALL, July 12. (Special.)—The Twelfth of July celebration held at Finch to-day under the auspices of the County of Stormont was one of the most successful events of the kind ever held in the county. Over five thousand people were present. An excursion train of eight coaches arrived from Billings Bridge conveying the brethren of the Ottawa district.

A civic address of welcome was extended by Dr. Macellus, Reeve of Finch. The village was elaborately decorated with arches, bunting and flags.

OWEN SOUND IN LINE. OWEN SOUND, July 12. (Special.)—To-day's Orange celebration was probably the largest in point of numbers in attendance ever held in the Town of Owen Sound. Over thirty lodges with a membership of over two thousand, were in the procession, and included lodges from down the line as far as Hanover. About twelve thousand visitors in all packed the town.

After the lodges had marched about the principal thoroughfares of the town in a procession over a mile in length, the celebration at Victoria Park took place. The grand stand was crowded with 4000 people.

BRANTFORD'S GALA DAY. Five Thousand Orangemen in Line, Including Many Veterans.

BRANTFORD, July 12. (Special.)—Orangemen to the number of 5000 celebrated here to-day and were given the freedom of the city. Large delegations were present from Hamilton, London, Niagara Falls, St. Catharines, Woodstock, Ingersoll, St. Thomas, Galt, Simcoe and other towns. Buffalo, N.Y., contributed 300 to the throng. A men's parade of a mile long was marched to Agricultural Park.

The visiting grand lodge officers included: Dr. E. Bessy, K.C., London; Dr. Williams, Woodstock; Lieut.-Col. Belcher, Toronto; County Masters Hoey Hamilton; Anderson, Galt; and others. London was represented by eight lodges, all of which made a fine showing.

A feature of the parade was the appearance of James O'Rourke of Paris, aged 92, who marched to-day for the seventy-sixth time on July 12. There were in line 100 veterans of the order who joined the order over 40 years ago.

At Agricultural Park a fine program of sports and competitions followed. Speeches were eliminated.

RIOTING IN BELFAST. Attack on Orangemen's Arch Repulsed—Fred Dane There.

LONDON, July 12. (C. A. P.)—Ulster's festival of the 100th anniversary of the famous battle of the Boyne, in which several Canadians, including Lieut.-Col. Scott and Frederick Dane of Toronto were taking part, was accompanied by a serious disturbance, culminating in a baton charge by police.

The most serious combat occurred in North Belfast, the rioters composed for the most part of young people. A crowd of two hundred Catholics made a rush for an arch spanning the thoroughfare, but were repulsed by a party of men on watch. The mob began a vigorous stone throwing, windows in the houses being smashed. When the police appeared stones were flying in directions. The constabulary charged the crowd with drawn batons, and in the melee which followed, two constables were seriously injured.
