

GREAT VICTORY LOAN REPAYING

FIFTY THOUSAND AT BIG MEETING

Reverence and Thankfulness Mark the Opening of Victory Loan.

PROMINENT SPEAKERS

Effective Arguments Put Forth for Support of Big Drive.

Fifty thousand people inspired with reverence and a feeling of thankfulness for the success of the allied arms joined yesterday afternoon in probably the largest and certainly one of the most solemn services of prayer and devotion ever held in Toronto. Patriotism mingled with the devotion of the church and state joined hands and the three-fold object of the gathering—to make prayer, to give thanks and to suitably inaugurate the forthcoming Victory Loan—was magnificently and impressively carried out.

Queen's Park, the scene of many historic gatherings, never witnessed anything like it before.

The gathering, no matter what its effects may be on the Victory Loan, will, more than anything else that has occurred, relieve the terrible strain of the war and induce a feeling that at last all is going well and that the success of the British and allied armies is now assured.

"Prayer, Praise and Victory," was the Victory Loan committee's summons to Toronto to come to Queen's Park, and it was responded to by 30,000 strong.

Was Well Managed.

The whole gathering was wonderfully well managed. There were five separate meetings, or rather services, each one the same. Sir Robert Borden spoke from the platform erected at the extreme north end of the park, facing the avenue leading to Bloor street. Accompanied by the lieutenant-governor, General Legie and officers of the headquarters staff, he arrived promptly at the hour set. His reception was cordial. Lady Borden and Lady Hendrie were also in the party, which was later joined on the platform by a number of Australian officers on their way home on furlough. Without any preliminary other than a few sharp blasts from a bugle the devotional part of the service followed. The national anthem, the "O God, Our Help in Ages Past," was sung from the band. The arrangements had been so perfected that they played in unison.

An Impressive Scene.

The devotional exercises opened with the fourth chapter reading the twenty-fourth psalm and then followed the morning prayer, the reading of the afternoon—thirty thousand people with heads bowed and bowed, repeating after the chaplain a form of public confession. A prayer of thanks for recent victories was offered up by the chaplain in which the crowd also joined. The Lord's prayer followed, and the national anthem, read and accompanied by the bands three verses were sung from that grand old hymn: "O God, Our Help in Ages Past."

There was a short wait and then speeches commenced. Sir Robert Borden, just back from England, naturally drew the largest crowd, but it was possible for only a comparatively few of the throng to hear him. It was the same with the other speakers—those within the sound of their voices could hear, but the rest were content to remain until the close.

Following the speeches the patriotic feeling of the gathering became more pronounced when they joined in singing "Onward, Christian Soldiers," and the national anthem concluded the proceedings, and the vast crowd dispersed.

Speeches Were Effective.

Sir Thomas White, Sir W. Massey, Major Canon Dixon, Major T. Crawford Brown, Major A. L. Burch, R.C. chaplain, Capt. H. C. Harper, Capt. J. A. McKinnney, Capt. J. W. Magwood. All of the speeches were in the same strain, and because they were brief were very effective. Canada and the empire's part in the war, the wonderful advance made on the western front, the duty that at home owe to the overseas soldiers and their dependents, and the country's financial responsibilities were splendidly dealt with. If anyone left the gathering without feeling proud of what Canada has accomplished, and without the conviction that it was his simple duty to subscribe to the Victory Loan, then he must indeed be "a man without a country."

ST. THOMAS COMPLETES LOAN ARRANGEMENTS

St. Thomas, Oct. 27.—The arrangements are all complete for the Victory Loan drive, which opens in St. Thomas and Elgin County. The objective for the city and county is $2,000,000, and a strong committee has been formed. R. M. Anderson is the chairman, and associated with him are the following leading citizens: Mayor E. A. Horton, H. P. MacMahon, George Goddard, Capt. (Rev.) N. H. McGilivray, C. St. Clair Leitch, J. H. Hopkins. The loan films are here, but owing to the "flu" they will not be used until later on in the campaign.

PREMIER CALLS ON ALL GOOD CITIZENS

Buying Bonds an Easier Task Than Fighting the Germans.

Canada Never Fails

Second Victory Loan May Prove to Be Real Victory Loan.

Ten thousand people within the range of Sir Robert Borden's voice heard his strong and eloquent appeal when he declared on behalf of the overseas that Canada needed for the 1918 Victory Loan. By far the largest portion of the great crowd assembled in Queen's Park to witness and take part in the launching of the campaign gathered around the stand from which the prime minister spoke. It was from here that the signal went to the other four stands by which the proceedings were timed.

It was just before 2:30 o'clock that Sir Robert, accompanied by Sir John Hendrie, chairman, General Legie and members of the headquarters staff, Mayor Church, Col. D'Amick and others prominent in the campaign, stepped upon the platform while the Royal Air Force band played the opening bars of the National Anthem. The bugle sounded and the immense audience remained standing and sang two verses.

Major A. L. Burch led the devotional exercises, which opened with the 24th psalm. In this and the Scriptures following the people joined, and when the Lord's Prayer had been concluded the bugle sounded again, the opening bars of the magnificent hymn that has been used in the campaign, "O God, Our Help in Ages Past," were sung from the park, the song was sung throughout the service, and as it was finished at this stand, an echo as it were, could be heard from the other stands where another band and another group of singers were concluding the last strains.

A Wonderful Thrill.

The thrill of the moment was tremendous and wonderfully inspiring. That hearts at home were attuned to the hearts of the fighting line, and that new determination came to those who were even as those who were over there fighting. If it needed any inspiration to surpass $200,000,000 in the next three weeks it came during the next three weeks when the bugle sounded and the singing of the grand old hymns that have steered men's hearts for the sacred cause of the world's freedom. The atmosphere that Sir John Hendrie introduced the premier.

Sir Robert compared the work of the men overseas with the most that those at home could do. Buying bonds was an easier task than fighting Germans. He briefly described what the war actually was and emphasized the fact that it could not be realized here. The duty of the individual was made very clear by the speaker. "And so I say to you with all the sense of responsibility that is upon me and fully realizing the importance of the words I utter during this hour, that the success of the war now on to the end does depend on the success of this loan. I pray God that peace will come quickly, but not until the boys at the front have learned their lesson."

"Remember," he said at another point, "you are rendering the most important service to Canada when you buy today. Canada has never failed, and I am confident that in this last and final effort you will not fail. Let the spirit of the loan be regarded as having fallen from the ranks of good citizenship.

The sorrow, the sacrifice and the effort of the past four years have been chronicled in our national life, but we have marched on steadfastly through the most momentous events ever chronicled in the world's history, from the days when the first Canadian division left our shores more than four years ago, to these latest days when the Canadian army is freeing from nameless horrors a population that has been in virtual bondage for years.

"The end is not yet, but the end may not be far distant. Even while I speak to you on this solemn Sabbath day, our gallant soldiers are pressing on in their stern duty in the final and supreme effort through which alone victory can be grasped.

Fortunes Seemed Low.

"Four months ago our fortunes in this war seemed never at lower ebb; today our hopes are at the summit of highest confidence. There we today among the armies of the allies held by those whom Canada has sent forth. All this they have done and endured that the world may be free, that our own shores that cities and towns and countryside of Canada may not lie under the awful menace that which my own eyes have seen in France and Belgium.

War of Nations.

"This war is not a war of nations, not of armies alone, and all the resources of every nation have been thrown unceasingly into the struggle. So now we must cast our eyes upon the resources of the prosperity with which we are blessed. We cannot maintain our armies at the front without the necessary provision of financial means to sustain them.

"This second Victory Loan may prove in good truth to be the real

NO TIME FOR SLACKING

War Can't Be Won Without Money, Says Sir Thomas White.

There was an enthusiastic crowd at the meeting at which the minister of finance, Sir Thomas White, delivered his stirring appeal on behalf of the 1918 Victory Loan in Queen's Park yesterday. The band of the Q.O.R. responded to the bugle signals which rang thru the great park from the main stand and rendered the National Anthem for the byzantine of Christianity, "Rule Britannia," and "Rule Britannia."

Hon. T. W. McGarry Says Dominion's Resources Are Scarcely Touched.

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY

Canada Should Raise Five Hundred Million in This Loan.

Speaking from the booth near the St. Albans street entrance to Queen's Park, Hon. T. W. McGarry, principal secretary, addressed a great audience that surrounded him on all sides. The speaker was introduced by Capt. (Chaplain) Frank C. Harper, who told the audience that Mr. McGarry was the one who was to preach the sermon of the occasion. The speaker said that he had had the opportunity of preaching a real sermon, and he could assure them it was to be a real collection of the spirit of the war.

Great Army Now.

When the war began Germany had said that Britain was a little nation composed of shopkeepers and that she had no army. But Britain went to work building up an army until she had an army of 5,000,000. "It was a great feat," said Mr. McGarry, "if we did not speak of our own. When the war broke out, this great Dominion was a peaceful country. It had no army, no navy, no air force, no tanks, no aeroplanes, no submarines, no ships, no guns, no shells, no bombs, no explosives, no munitions, no stores, no supplies, no food, no clothing, no shelter, no homes, no families.
