

BREAKWATER COMPLETED. Wooden Affair to Be Replaced by

Permanent One in Spring.

No more need the residents of the island be fearful of being washed out of their beds, have their gas mains destroyed, or their cellars flooded, for a new breakwater has been built, reaching from the old breakwater and extending west parallel with the shore for a full thousand feet. The breakwater, which is only a temporary affair, composed of wooden piles, but cost, however, in the neighborhood of $10,000, has just been completed. No time has been lost by either the government engineer, J. G. Sing, or the contractors, Messrs. Haney & Miller, who sub-let the piledriving contract to John E. Russel, and the work has continued without a pause since the autumn, when it was begun. In the spring this will be replaced by a permanent pier about 1600 feet long, composed of iron piles and filled with concrete; $80,000 is a rough estimate of what it will cost. Apother improvement of this character will be begun on the pier at the eastern channel of the bay, in the spring, when the super-Permanent One in Spring. ment of this character will be begun on the pier at the eastern channel of the bay, in the spring, when the super-structure of the whole pier, which is in a deplorable condition, will be rein-forced by close-sheet piling, and the government has decided to spend about $28,000 or $30,000 on this work.

Montreal, Nov. 16.—(Special.)—In reply to those Ontario papers which are claiming the liberty of Protestant speech in the Province of Quebec, Hon. Mr. Tarte writes that this liberty exists here in the widest possible sense. Accidents like those at a couple of Salvation Army meetings are only as a comma in the book of tolerance, which is open wide in this historic province. "Is there," he asks. "a country under the sun where Protestant worship it practised with greater liberty than in our midst? We recognize fully the rights of Baptists, Presbyterians and Anglicans to make a propaganda if they deem it advisable amongst Catholics, and we claim the same rights for our missionaries."
