Lindsey, Feb. 21.—The first semi-final game of the Collingwood Midgets' fixtures was played here to-night. The Collingwood boys arrived at noon via C.P.R. and had a good warm up on the rink this afternoon. The game was very fast from the drop of the puck. The hari-time soore was 4 to 0 in favor of the Midgets and full time it to 1 for the Midgets. The Collingwood boys scored their only good with the Midgets playing six men. Referee Hancck had an easy time of it, only a rew penalties being handed out. Fryer and Bearrs and Stephens in goal played a star game for the visitors, and Koyl and Stolldard and McDougall and Cote doing good work for the Midgets. The line up is as follows:
