President Stark's letter, in reply : Secretary Hoskins of the Amonauts, received yesterday, emphasizes that the C. A. A. U. is running the show all right. The action of the Rugby men was an open mutiny, and as one of the Union officers said yesterday. they must take the consequences. Tho the Argonauts have resigned from the C. A. A. U., their members other than the football players, will remain in good standing in athletics as well as rowing. has been called for Oct. 26, when it is straightened out. In the meantime the Inter-Provincial Union is an outlaw organization ,and the C. A. A. U. is the controlling body in Canadian athletics.

Shrubb insists that he can outfoot the in 1.41.40 seems to upset his argument. Controller Ward states that the course is at least 19 1-2 miles, but to settle all disputes, he will have i measured this week. In reference to the controversy, some letters were received here

H. Longley writes: "I see by this morning's World (Shrubb's letter) that the Ward Marathon course, which was covered by Longboat on Saturday last was not nineteen miles. I think the pest way to settle Mr. Shrubb's mind would be for him to run over the same ccurse with official timers, and let him try and lower the record already made."

A Canadian writes: "I have a propo sition to make to some of these runners country and our athletes. If they want Mr. Shrubb to race against Mr. Longboat, let them put up say $200 (and it will soon be covered) and have them race against time over the same course If Mr. Shrubb wins, give him the $200. If he loses, give it to the Sick Children's Hospital. This is a chance to show who is the bag of wind."

Look out for Marathon winners in the future from the Holy Family School. Parkdale, whose boys had things pretty well their own way in the race for fourteen years and under on Saturday. John Moriarity was the winner, with Eugene Moylett second and William Moulahan third, all of the Holy Family School.
