In Incident of Two Years Ago Recall. ed by the Present Conference.

Montreal, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—The resent visit of Hon. Mr. Patterson to Sir Adolphe Chapleau at Spencerwood retails an incident which took place during Lieut. Governor Chapleau's visit to the coast a couple of years since, Ou the way up His Honor of Quebec telegraphed to His Honor of Manitoba that he would arrive in Winnipeg at such a date expecting of course that he and his friends would be Lieut. Governor Patterson's guests at Government House. An answer soon came that His Honor of Manitoba was not at home, and Sir Adolphe went on to Vancouver. On his way back, however, His Honor of Quebec once more wired His Honor of Manitoba that he would be back to Winnipeg at such and such a time, and this time the reply stated that the Lieut. Governor had gone up the line. It is said that Sir Adolphe Chapleau was terribly annoyed at being the recipient of such treatment at the hands of his brother Governor, and Winnipeg was passed unnoticed.

It will be remembered that he papers then announced that Governor Chapleau had gone West on business connected with the Manitoba school difficulty, and the supposition at the time was that His Honor of Manitoba did not wish to His Honor of Manitoba had gone West on business connected with the Manitoba school difficulty, and the supposition at the time was that His Honor of Manitoba did not wish to His Honor of Manitoba chaper of His Honor of Manitoba did not wish to His Honor of His Honor of Manitoba did not wish to His Honor of Manitoba chape did not wish to His Honor of Manitoba chape did not wish to His Honor of Manitoba did not wish to His Honor of Manitoba chape did not his honor of His Honor of His Honor of Manitoba chape did not wish to His

"The Pretty American Widow."

The friends and relatives in this city of Mrs. Charles H. Kittinger, nee Miss Amy Whitney, were very much surprised to learn that the lady in question had suddenly gained notoriety in Vienna through Baron Pasetti committing suicide, because she refused to respond to his affection. Mrs. Kittinger's relatives include several of the leading families in Montreal. Her step-mother resides on Union-avenue, and she has an aunt living on Prince Arthur-street. Miss Whitney left Montreal in 1887, and is a daughter of the late Charles Whitney, a well-known Ottawa journalist. She is known in Vienna as the pretty American widow.

Charges on the Intercolonial.

Some further changes have been made in the management of the Intercolonial Railway. Mr. J. H. Hardwell, who has been chief clerk under Mr. E. Tiffin, the Canadian Pacific freight agent at 10 routo, has been appointed division/l freight agent on the Intercolonial, with headquarters at Montreal. Mr. Hardwell will take charge on Jan. 1, and his division will extend from Montreal to St. Flavie. He will also have charge of the agency at Toronto and the western district.

An Apology to the Ladies.

W. J. Guinane wishes to apologize to the fifty or sixty ladies who called at the stores of the Monster Shoe House yesterday in answer to the advertisement, offer ing ladies' rubbers at 20 cents a pair. The ing would not have been mentioned but for a mistake. The head salesman of the rubber shoe department said—or say he said—there were only 20 dozen left—whereas Mr. Guinane understood him to mean 500 pairs.

Burglary at Wat rloe.

Waterloo, Ont., Dec. 8.—Burglars forced an entrance into the butcher shop of H. B. Duiring, Kirg-street, jby forcing the back door, some time during the night. Previous-ty they stole augers and tooks from Contractor Moogk's work shop, with which they be the safe and blew off the doors with a powder fuse. 250 was secured and it looks like the work and the said—there were only 20 dozen left—day at Cleveland, from the yard of the Globe Iron Works.
