The report of the Temperance Committee, read by Mr. L. C. Peake, recommended as follows: (1) An amendment of the liquor law to secure its full enforcement. Ilquor law to secure its full enforcement.

(2) A majority of the electors in a polling sub-division having the right to prevent the renewal of a license in their sub-division at the end of any license year.

(3) Persons to whom liquor has been sold unlawfully ought not to be punished, as the present liability interferes seriously with law enforcement. (4) There ought to be a change in the law, which now makes a tayern license that has been makes a tavern license that has been issued unlawfully as valid and effective as if legally granted. (5) Inspectors and magistrates ought not to have unlimited power to keep on imposing only first-offence penalties upon offenders who have many times been convicted of law-breaking. (6) Provision ought to be made to prevent the continued renewal of licenses to persons who have been repeatedly con-victed of violating the law. (7) That Methodists use their powers in an en-Legislature such men as will favor a pro-hibitory law.
