ERZBERGER'S STATEMENTS ARE BRANDED AS UNTRUE BY A FORMER FRENCH PREMIER

Alexander Ribot Describes Declaration Made by German Finance Minister That Allies Sought Peace Through the Vatican As "a Distortion of the Truth."

Havre, July 28.—"A distortion of the truth," was the characterization applied today by Alexander Ribot to the recent statement by Matthias Erzberger, the German finance minister, declaring that Great Britain and France made peace overtures to Germany through the Vatican in 1917, which Germany rejected.

Mr. Ribot, who was French premier and foreign minister at the time in question, made this declaration in a statement to Marcel Huin of the Echo de Paris. The former premier explained the occurrence as follows:

"Pope Benedict, in August, 1917, suggested proposals to serve as a basis for overtures to Germany. France and Great Britain both decided to decline the proposals. The pope, however, in the meantime, made a statement to the effect that the proposals did not contain sufficient guarantees for Belgium, Carthage, and the papal secretariat of state. Mr. Ribot continued, seized upon this to telegraph Germany for explanation. It was an attempt to start a conversation. Mr. Ribot declared, 'but the British Government cut it off short and the British minister went no further.'"

ALLAN STUDHOLME, LABOR MEMBER IN PARLIAMENT, DIES

Represented East Hamilton For Several Years in the Ontario Legislature.

FAVORED EIGHT-HOUR DAY

Sprang Into Prominence During Hamilton Street Car Strike.

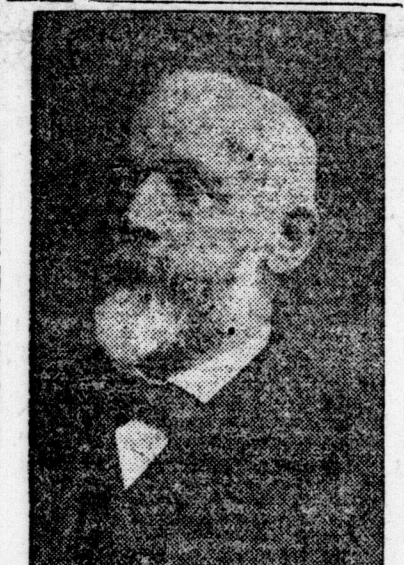

Hamilton, July 28.—Allan Studholme, labor member in the Provincial House for the riding of East Hamilton, died at his home here this morning. Mr. Studholme suffered a stroke last week while attending a soccer football game. Little hope was held out for his recovery from the first.

Mr. Studholme, who was one of the outstanding figures in the Provincial House for many years, largely owing to his advocacy of the eight-hour day, was a native of Birmingham, England, where he was born on December 8, 1846. He was prominently identified with labor movements all his life, and in the Ontario country was on the executive board of the Stove Mount and Steel Range Makers' International Union. He came to Canada in 1880, and 17 years later went to Australia. He returned to Hamilton in 1897.

Liberals Supported Him.
Mr. Studholme's career as a street car strike and riots he represented the men in the negotiations. Shortly after, when backed by labor as a candidate in East Hamilton, opposing J. J. Scott, Conservative, and W. M. McClelland, Liberal, he was elected by a large majority. Thereafter the Liberals threw their support in behind him whenever there was an election, and Mr. Studholme held the seat up until the time of his death.

It was a familiar saying here at election time: "They can never beat the old stove mounter."

Mr. Studholme was always a champion of the eight-hour day, and many other measures in the interest of labor. He was a member of the general executive of the Single Tax League of Ontario, and the Ontario Council of Social and Moral Reform Committee. In religion he was a Methodist.

NEGROES SWEAR TO DIE RATHER THAN SUBMIT TO INJUSTICES

Chattanooga, Tennessee, July 28.—Declaration that before the negroes of the country again will submit to "Many of the injustices which we have suffered at the hands of the white men, they will have to kill more of them than the combined number of soldiers that were slain in the great world war" is made in a letter written to President Wilson by the Rev. J. G. Robinson, president of the African Methodist Episcopal Church at Chattanooga, and made public here today.

The letter written by the Rev. Robinson, who acted as spokesman for the delegation of shiphands and laymen on the African church, which presented a pledge of loyalty to President Wilson at the outbreak of the war, appeals for the president's support in behalf of legislation to prevent lynching, and to force southern states to place negroes on juries.

PAN-GERMANS CHARGE PRINCE MAXIMILIAN WITH TREACHERY

Claim Is Made That Former German Chancellor Announced Ex-Kaiser's Abdication Without the Latter's Consent—Action Was Taken to Subvert Revolutionary Movement.

Berlin, July 27.—This morning's Pan-German newspapers of Berlin make a feature of a five-column expose of occurrences in connection with the outbreak of the German revolution last November, including a struggle taking place at German great headquarters at Spa on November 9, lasting nearly 24 hours, to induce Emperor William to abdicate. Material is added to show that Prince Maximilian of Baden, then imperial chancellor, finally took the initiative and gave out to the Kaiser an official statement that the emperor had abdicated as emperor and king of Prussia, although it is averred that he had not done either, and has never renounced the throne of Prussia.

Prince Maximilian, it is declared, took this step out of misguided patriotism in an attempt to subvert the revolutionary movement, which was rapidly getting out of hand, and by it forced the emperor's advisers to hurry him away to Holland. The Pan-Germans now charge the former chancellor with treachery.

All doubts as to William Hohenzollern's abdication as German emperor and king of Prussia were considered to have been settled when Berlin advices on November 20 last told of the issuance by the new German government of the former emperor's act of renunciation, described as having been executed and signed by William Hohenzollern at Amerongen, Holland, on November 28.

CLEMENCEAU VIEWS DEVASTATED AREAS

Promises People of Stricken Districts That Assistance Will Be Forthcoming.

Paris, July 28.—Premier Clemenceau, Sunday touring the devastated region of the Somme, and everywhere received a most enthusiastic reception. At Amiens the crowd broke line and swept the premier along to the city hall, where the mayor enumerated the wants of the city.

Premier Clemenceau, his voice broken with emotion, recalled the events of a year ago.

"At Abbeville," the premier said, "we asked ourselves, ought we to arrest the march on Paris or prevent the Germans from getting to the sea. Both viewpoints were defended by men of equal ability."

"A great allied officer said to me one day, 'If Paris falls, what shall we do?' I answered, 'If Paris falls, France will be in ruins. You ask me, 'What are you going to do for us?' I answer, 'Everything' for there could be no greater injustice than if France showed herself miserably towards those who have defended her."

LLOYD GEORGE EXPECTED TO ANNOUNCE POLICY ON IRISH QUESTION AT AN EARLY DATE

British Premier Will Outline Plan At Parliamentary Session To Be Held in Near Future—Definite Conclusions Have Been Reached by Government On Pressing Problem.

London, July 28.—The Irish question is expected to come up for parliamentary discussion at an early date when, it is suggested by the parliamentary correspondence of the Daily Chronicle, who is in close touch with Lloyd George, who is expected to announce a definite Government policy. It has been too hastily assumed, according to this authority, matter on last Monday, that the Government has no policy. On the contrary, the Northcliffe press has been challenging the premier to produce his plan. That he did not accept the challenge, according to the Chronicle, was not because he has not got one.

Sir Henry Dalglish, who on several occasions before now has made parliamentary opportunities for the premier, members of the House of Commons, will today call Lloyd George's attention to the fact that large numbers of new members of the House of Commons are expected to be elected in the event of a general election. Lloyd George, he expressed, he will give a day for it before the summer recesses.

The balance of probability is that the premier will take place, and that the premier will unfold the Government's plan for another attempt to settle the perennial problems.

CHICAGO WHITES AND BLACKS CLASH IN RIOTS FOLLOWING TROUBLE AT BATHING BEACH

Two Negroes Killed and More Than Fifty Persons Injured in Fighting That Starts When Colored Boy Gets Over an Imaginary Line in Lake Michigan Used To Separate the Races.

Trouble renewed. Chicago, July 28.—Trouble between whites and negroes was renewed in Chicago's black belt today, when Moses Thomas, a negro, fired several shots at a wagonload of white workmen being taken to a south side factory. When an attempt was made by whites to disarm Thomas, a dozen negroes rushed to his assistance. The police quelled the disturbance, and reported that nobody had been injured.

Chicago, July 28.—The situation in the "black belt" of Chicago, where race rioting late yesterday resulted in the death of two negroes and the injury of perhaps fifty or more whites and blacks, including four policemen, was under control of the police today.

Accounts of the origin of the trouble differ, but the version accepted by the police today is that the fighting started at the Twenty-ninth street bathing beach, where the whites and colored people are accustomed to swim. Lake Michigan, although the two races are separated by an imaginary line. This version of the affair says that a negro boy on a raft crossed the boundary line.

Domestic Situation In England Worries Member For Derby

James Henry Thomas, M. P., Urges Increased Production in All Lines.

London, July 28.—James Henry Thomas, member of parliament for Derby, in an interview following an address before his constituents on Saturday night, expressed profound anxiety concerning the unstable domestic situation in England. Mr. Thomas, who recently visited America, said that the strong position of the United States could not be doubted, and that he had seen enough while there to satisfy him that it was essential to restore confidence in this country by increasing production and keeping every industry fully employed.

Mr. Thomas's speech was his first since he returned. He said that England's financial condition coupled with the manner in which labor disputes are magnified abroad, had created an impression in America that England was going heading into bankruptcy and ruin.
