HAMILTON, May 1.—(Special.)—Dr. Roberts, the medical health officer, this evening presented to the board of cial,)-The annual meeting of the St. health a detailed statement of the ex- Catharines Canadian Club was held in penses connected with the smallpox outbreak. There have been fifty-seven patients, and they have cost the city $7520. The board decided to ask for legislation that would relieve municipalities from paying the cost of keeping people who have been quarantined on account of coming into contact with smallpox patients. The board will buy three barrels of coal oil to empty into mosquito-breeding ponds.

Catharines Canadian Club was held in The Welland on Friday night, with the largest attendance of the year.

A. Morse Grier, K.C., of Niagars, Falls, Ont., was the after-dinner speaker, and spoke delightfuly on "Travel and Travelling."

The annual election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, J. K. Kernahan; vice-president, A. C. King; secretary-treasurer, Dr. E. Hooper; executive committee, Messrs.
