KIND WORDS OF OPPONEN

REAL FRIEND OF LABOR

J. G. O'Donoghue Gives Mr. Macdonell Credit for Aiding Workingman's Cause.

A. Claude Macdonell, the Conservative candidate in South Toronto, is of-posed only by the representative of labor; consequently labor questions are the chief issue in that fight. But it should not be hard for Mr. Macdonells convince the labor man that he is to convince the labor men that he is entitled to their votes. The strongest testimony is offered by his opponent, J. G. O'Donoghue, written, however, before Mr. O'Donoghue accepted that nomination of the labor party. This is the letter:

Toronto, July 21, 1905.

A. C. Macdonell, Esq., M.P., Teronto:
Dear Mr. Macdonell: Will you please accept my thanks for the copy of Hansard you were kind enough to send me containing a report of your questions to Mr. Emmerson respecting pensions for Intercolonial employes?

Now that the session is over I must express my appreciation of the willingness you displayed on all occasions to render every service you could to for-ward the interests of organized labor. It will afford me much pleasure to draw to the attention of those whom I represent at Ottawa the interest you showed in matters concerning their welfare. It is fair to say that on the several occasions that I sought your several occasions that I sought your assistance, you not only gave that assistance, but gave it promptly. I shall perhaps take advantage of your repeated offer to introduce legislation desired by the organized labor bodies of Canada. Yours sincerely, (Sgd.)

J. G. O'Donoghue.

J. Harvey Hall, legislative representative of the railway mefi, also commends Mr. Macdonell's work at Ottawa. Writing under data July 14 last tawa. Writing under date July 14 last he says: "I do not wish to allow the present session to close with the possibility of the finish of the present parliament without thanking you for the very great service and assistance the very great service and assistance you have given me in the support of legislation which has been introduced on behalf of the railway men, and to especially thank you for the amount of work that you gave so cheerfully to the railway men in their opposition to the Lemieux Bill, and I sincerely hope-that your assistance to myself as a representative of the railway men will be appreciated by them when opportunity presents itself."

In the face of these testimonials seems strange that organized labor should endeavor to drive out of parliament the man who, according to Mr. O'Donoghue, "on all occasions" rendered "every service to forward the interests of organized labor."

SUICIDE AT WHITBY,

W. Cawker, Butcher, Hangs Himself From Bannister.

WHITBY, Oct. 16 .- (Special) .- Last GRAND TRUNK MAIN LINE night a butcher of the town, S. W. Cawker, yielded to a fit of despondency and hanged himself to the bannister in his residence in the absence of other members of his family. He had been drinking heavily.

Last April Cawker purchased the butcher business of the late C. F. Wil-kinson, and last week sold out, in-their gaze. When the police arrived Cawker was found to have committed the rash deed with the aid of two small straps. He had reached above his head and tied the end to the rail and then allowed his weight to fall upon the straps. When found his feet were touching the floor.

enactment of the Dominion parliament must prevail over that of the province, if the two are in conflict, as they clearly are in the present case.

For these reasons their lordships in July last dismissed the appeal, and directed the appellants to pay the costs of it.
